SADE'S SMOOTH OPERATOR FUELS LP DEBUT

Smooth Operator, the second single from Epic recording artist Sade's debut LP, Diamond Life, is rapidly scaling the RPM 100 singles survey after six weeks of charting. The LP's debut single, Hang On To Your Love, went Top 20, and established the young singer as one of Britain's most exciting contributions to the '80s music scene. The Diamond Life LP, produced by Robin Millar, remains in the Top 20 on the RPM 100 album survey after 13 weeks of charting. Epic product is distributed in Canada by CBS Records.

Sade (pronounced shar-DAY) was born in a village near Lagos, Nigeria of a Nigerian father and an English mother. When her parents separated, her mother took Sade and her brother to England. Her mother remarried, and Sade's high school years were spent in a seaside village. At 17, she left home, going to London to study fashion. After completing a 3-yr. course, she designed and made clothes, supplementing her income with modelling jobs. "I got into it (fashion design) because I like to draw," Sade has said. "I liked the creative part. But you really have to think about business first and foremost. I never liked that part of it. I don't miss it. I wouldn't go back to it, never in a million years." In 1981, the manager of a London-based funk band, Pride, offered Sade a gig as a backing vocalist. She auditioned, and was turned down. Shortly after, she was asked again. This time she accepted, "to help them out." On a song called Smooth Operator, Sade (nee Helen Folasade Adu) would sing lead. The song was in jazzy contrast to Pride's funky set. Ultimately, Sade and three members of Pride worked out a short set of material on their own that was more suitable to Sade's supple, soothing vocal. The band — eventually to be known as Sade — opened for Pride at Ronnie Scott's legendary jazz club in London. Sade eventually expanded to include seven members. The current lineup is Sade (vocals), Stuart Matthewman (sax, guitar), Andrew Hale (keyboards), and Paul S. Denman (bass). For the LP, the band was bolstered by drummer Dave Early and percussionist Martin Ditcham.

Sade co-wrote all of Diamond Life's songs, most of them with Stuart Matthewman. The LP received the "album of the year" designation at Britain's equivalent of the Grammys last year. In Canada, Diamond Life is well on its way to platinum status — sales of 100,000 units or more. Sade's recent comments in a telephone interview with The Globe and Mail's Liam Lacey seem to indicate a commitment to quality and longevity in her career. "There was nothing self-conscious about this 'return to elegance' thing that I've been labelled with; it's just me," she said. "I don't wear spiky green and orange hair because that's what everyone wears now, and I'd feel stupid in it. My music is understated . . . I like to get up in the morning and dress in a way that makes me feel confident. I like to listen to music that sounds as though it was made to last." As a young girl, Sade was preoccupied with American soul — primarily Marvin Gaye. Other, older artists also interested her: Frank Sinatra, Count Basie, and Dinah Washington. Her love for these artists comes through loud and clear on Diamond Life — an LP encompassing lounge-jazz, pop, and heartfelt soul. It is hoped that North Americans will be able to see — and hear — the magic of Sade by summer's end. A final comment from the Globe interview: "I'm a big believer in things that last — books, buildings or songs. Like the Chrysler building, you know. Nobody says, that's so '30s . . . it just looks good to generation after generation, and it will look good forever." So with Sade. -KCW

Free CHUM announcements to boost Tears single

CHUM Group Radio have announced a series of free commercial announcements on all stations in support of Tears Are Not Enough by Northern Lights as well as the We Are The World LP by USA For Africa, which features the Tears track.

The CHUM stations will broadcast an average of 50 to 60 announcements from April 18 through May 17. The announcements were written and produced by CHUM Group Radio and feature word messages by several of the performers on the Canadian session. Walter Soles, considered one of the top voice-over specialists in North America takes on the announcer chores.

These announcements will be made available to the CAB for distribution to member stations.

The CHUM Group stations participating are: Q Network (St. John's), CJCH and C-100 FM Halifax, CFRA and CFMO Ottawa, CKPT and CKQM Peterborough, CHUM AM & FM Toronto and CFRW and CHIQ Winnipeg.

For further information contact Mike Ocomore or Warren Cosford at 416-925-6666.

Ontario Sales Tax bite relinquished for Tears

In a rare display of charity the Ontario Government has added the weight of its Sales Tax revenue to the Northern Lights for Africa (Society). It's expected that more than $100,000 in provincial sales tax revenue can be raised through the sales of the Tear Are Not Enough single. The announcement was made by the Province's Treasurer Larry Grossman.

Fortunately the plan won't add a book-keeping problem for retailers who will continue to charge the 7 percent tax on the Tears single, as well as the We Are The World (USA For Africa) LP and cassette, which contains the Tears track. The province will donate the total tax collected to the Ethiopian fund.

U.S. CD decline affects Canada

Inconsistent output of finished CD product at Indiana's Digital Audio Disk Corporation is impacting on CD availability in Canada for CBS Records, who run the plant, as well as other major labels. In the U.S., this has meant long-term unavailability for product such as Billy Joel, Cyndi Lauper, and Bruce Springsteen.

"Canada is certainly affected," says Don Oates, Vice-President of Sales and Marketing for CBS. "Our understanding at this time is that things are turning around . . . by mid to late May of this year we should see real evidence of that happening." At present, there are three CD plants in the world: the CBS facility in Indiana; Sony/CBS in Japan; and Philips/Polygram in Europe. Shipments from Japan are currently slowed due to domestic demand there. Canadian sources place the cost of building a CD plant in this country as high as $4 million.

Fanshawe's MIA students host awards banquet

The students of the 1984/85 Music Industry Arts (MIA) program at London's Fanshawe College will present their 10th Annual MIA Awards Banquet (Apr. 20) at the Paddock Lounge.

James Orr, Present of The Association of Producers & Engineers (TAPE), advises that their main recording studio now boasts "a video-lock, and an analog-to-digital conversion system. These important additions to our facilities will enable us to become even better qualified to work within the music industry." He concludes with "We are confident that this will be reflected in the quality of our productions."

Fanshawe's Music Industry Arts course is one of the more popular record production courses available.

Idle Eyes & Madonna among WEA videos

Cancon group Idle Eyes are included on WEA's Video Compilation with their current hit single, Tokyo Rose, along with Madonna's Into The Groove and Material Girl. The latter single is currently in the Top 10 of the RPM 100 singles chart.

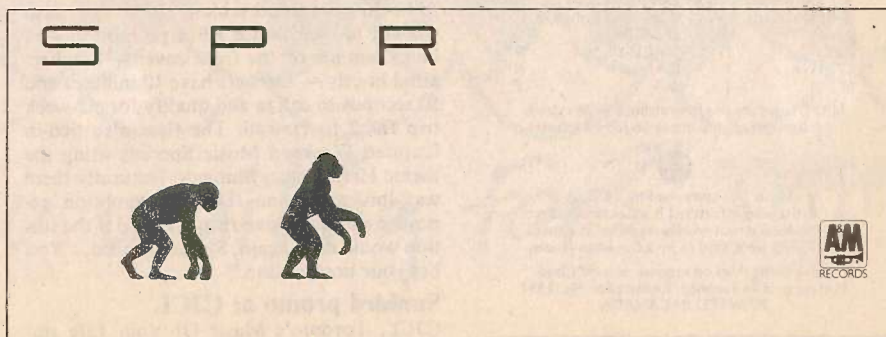

The complete list of videos on the compilation are as follows:

IDLE EYES
 Tokyo Rose

Fogerty's Rock And Roll Girls has made giant gains up the chart, a strong followup to The Old Man Down The Road, his debut single which still holds a chart position after 16 weeks.

Gowan promo package shipped to radio

CBS Records has released a two-record "radio only" package that includes a copy of Columbia recording artist Gowan's 2nd LP for the label, entitled Strange Animal, and a produced radio special on the artist. A Criminal Mind, the LP's debut single, has entered the Top 10 on the RPM 100 singles survey. Side 1 of the interview disc contains the complete half-hour special, while Side 2 is a collection of 22 individually banded and timed clips. Radio stations can construct their own special, or otherwise utilize the segments according to their programming needs. The media special was conceived and written by Bob Mackowycz of Toronto's Q-107 FM outlet, and produced by Len Naemark. The set's jacket contains all in-out cue information required. Kim Zayac, National Promotion Manager for CBS, tells RPM that the package was "pre-planned as a segue between Gowan's 1st and 2nd singles." The label is set to release the title track as the 2nd single from the Strange Animal LP. "I played some tracks for Bob (Mackowycz), and he was definitely into the material," says Zayac. "He's an intelligent programmer and reviewer — and I've worked with him before. I think we've created a very good profile of the artist." The Strange Animal LP is Top 20 on the RPM 100 album survey. The album was produced in England by David Tickle, and features vocalist/keyboardist Gowan backed by members of Peter Gabriel's band. The promotional package's jacket also features the original artwork from Strange Animal as well as Dimo Safari's photos of Gowan. Strange Animal recently attained gold status (sales of 50,000 or more) in Canada.

WAT SAYS

Anne Murray sells 30 million LPs!!

That's a pretty awesome figure, but figures don't lie. Anne Murray was presented with a special Crystal Globe award in Los Angeles (Apr. 18) by Capitol's Don Zimmerman, in recognition of sales of 30 million records worldwide. She was appearing at the Amphitheatre when the award was presented along with gold for A Little Good News and Heart Over Mind LPs, her 8th and 9th gold U.S. LPs. Her Heart Over Mind LP was recently voted the Best Selling Country Album in the U.S. for a female artist by NARM. This award is billed as the only recognition given by the music industry of actual over the counter sales and is the 4th time Anne has won such an award. She was honoured by NARM in 1978, 1979 and 1980.

Toronto FM race is on . . . !!

The battle for Toronto's new FM band is going to be a tough one - and it's going to go right down to the wire. I wouldn't even want to hazard a guess as to who will be the winner . . . not in print anyway. I'll go out on the limb only this far: the choice is between 2 big, big biggies.

Rumours! Rumours! Rumours!

This business is filled with them. Did you

" . . . the prophets of doom, the messengers of mediocrity, will be overwhelmed by the new generation of competent, creative, confident artisans and by all those of preceding generations who have already demonstrated their freshness of mind, their talent and their capacity for inspired leadership."

hear about the big (20,000 pieces) bust in Montreal? I'm told the news is about to hit the fan.

Don't mention payola . . . !!

The Americans are just a bit touchy about the word "payola". Vancouver's Payola$ are in a good position to break into the U.S. so a little thinking prevailed and they changed the name of the group . . . slightly, to Paul Hyde & The Payola$. . . which will probably lead to an intro of Paul Hyde. Their new single, You're The Only Love, was produced by David Foster.

Randy Bachman is back!!

Randy Bachman has joined with K.D. Lang and The Powder Blues and other Vancouver-based artists to raise needy dollars for OXFAM. The centerpiece of the benefit LP is Open Your Heart, written by Duane O'Kane and Id Guinness. Initial pressing was 1,300, which hit retail Apr. 16. The LP will sell for $7.99 with as much as $6.50 going to OXFAM. O'Kane and Guinness, employees of the Ministry of Human Resources, have each spent over 50 hours a week setting up the project over the last 3 months.

CFOR celebrates 40th year

Dave Alatalo, Assistant PD at CFOR Orillia, Ontario, advises that the station is celebrating its 40th anniversary this July. As part of the celebrations they would like to air messages from "anyone involved with CFOR over the past 40 years." It's interesting to note that 40 years ago, Bob Hope was in Orillia and cut the ribbon at the official opening. He has kept in touch with the station since and will be providing a phone interview and station ID's for the anniversary date. Those wishing to submit memorabilia or best wishes to the station should direct their messages to Dave Alatalo, CFOR Orillia, 241 West Street, North, Orillia, Ontario. L3V 6K2 or phone 705-326-2511.

C-KAL counters local rags

Rae Slavens, Promotion Director for Vernon's C-KAL, reports that the B.C. station "took an old idea and turned it into a tremendous success." To counter the city's two local newspapers and other local media, the station published a Summer Flyer, to be released in time for the Spring BBM. The client response was apparently more than had been anticipated resulting in a flyer that "turned out to be 56 pages and tabloid size." They also worked in their major BBM promotion — a lucky number on the front cover — numbers aired hourly — listeners have 10 minutes and 50 seconds to call in and qualify for a 2-week trip for 2 to Hawaii. The flyer also tied-in featured Weekend Music Specials using the theme Here Comes Summer. Naturally there was lots of station ID and promotion exposure and paid advertising. Asked if the station would do it again, Slavens replied, "You bet your bottom-line."

Sunbird promo at CJCL

and in particular the Ethiopian relief fund, what an incredible "boffo" (box office for those of you not patched into the lingo) event it would be for the Northern Lights' performers to play Toronto's CNE, Vancouver's PNE, and Montreal's Expo Stadium on selected dates for this summer. If the Band Aid group and USA For Africa superstars could also get together for similar-type dates across North America and Europe - the take would be phenomenal.

Gowan . a real gentleman . . . !

A bunch of the guys . . . and Lynda Kay, from CBS, got together (Apr. 17) and surprised Larry Gowan while he was setting up for his Diamond date. They presented him with gold for his Strange Animal LP, which, by the way is now almost platinum. Gowan's single, A Criminal Mind, went gold a little while back and it's very rare for a Canadian act to get a gold single . . . and it couldn't happen to a better guy. I've met quite a few acts on their way to stardom, most haven't made it and those who did, didn't last very long. But Gowan is a "strange animal" to be sure. He's going to make it, and in the process he's stockpiling a lot of friends . . . and when he needs them . . . they'll be there.

tion, has mounted a promotion for what they're billing "the prize of a lifetime" — a new Pontiac Sunbird convertible from the station and Marvin Starr Pontiac Buick. Between Apr. 1 and May 3, the station will call out names of club members, 12 times each day. If a member hears their name they have 14 minutes and 30 seconds to call CJCL and claim their name. The Pontiac will be awarded to some lucky listener on May 4.

Q-94 promo'ing 10th anniversary

Q-94 FM (CHIQ-FM) in Winnipeg is celebrating its 10th anniversary through the month of April. On-air personality David Mann is inviting one listener per morning, through the month, to call in and sing the song they like to sing in the shower. Mann will play a cart containing the sounds of a shower running when the contestants are singing. All contestants receive an official Q-94 shower cap and a $25 gift certificate for Pepper's Restaurant. The most original shower singer will be flown to Toronto (with a guest) via Pacific Western, to stay at the Sheraton Hotel for a weekend.

Heavy Capitol promo for Cancon acts

PROMO PROFILE

by Sarah Norris - National Press & Publicity Capitol Records

Strange Advance's 2WO has hit gold status in Canada, selling over 50,000 copies. The first single, We Run, continues to do well on the charts. The video for the single, directed by Rob Quartly of Champagne Pictures, has just been released. It features the lineup that Strange Advance will be taking on the road with them in May. The U.K., Germany, and several European territories have committed to 2WO for future release, with a U.S. release slated for May. Heredity is Capitol's debut album by Rational Youth. Their first single, No More And No Less, was a top add at radio the first week out. Although singer/writer Tracey Howe has replaced the band's electro-pop sounds with an earthier sound, we are anticipating strong support from radio and retail. A video of No More And No Less, directed by Ron Berti of Champagne Pictures, has been completed, and Rational

CD's and singles boost Rhythms image

Rhythms, the distributor headed by President Dominique Zgarka, currently operates nationally with branches in Toronto and Montreal.

The firm began four years ago as a Canadian 7" and 12" singles rack-jobber and one-stop, dealing with chain stores and independent outlets nationally.

"Three years ago, we expanded," said Zgarka, "to include records of all configurations, from all countries, and in all music styles, and increased our customer base to include such chains as Sam The Record Man, A&A Records and Tapes, and Music World. Two years ago, with the help of Sony Canada, we began handling compact discs for resale to audio stores. We have now developed a network of 500 audio stores, as well as the majority of the independent and chain stores in Canada. As a natural extension of having developed this massive customer base, a year and a half ago, we decided to expand into distributing Canadian and foreign labels on an exclusive basis."

Rhythms currently has a threefold position in the Canadian marketplace: distribution — 23 labels under license including the CBC's SM5000 line; rack-jobber — racking product from all the major Canadian labels for sub-distribution to over 100 independently operated record stores that are not serviced by any of the major record companies; audiophile distributor — the firm was the first in Canada to sell a compact disc, and continues to service approximately 500 stores nationwide.

Zgarka adds: "1985 will see Rhythms expand mainly in the distribution field. A recent major acquisition, the CBC SM5000 series, begins that expansion in a most favourable way."

Youth will tour. The title track from Luba's Secrets And Sins LP is the album's 3rd single. It follows the success of the gold Let It Go, and the pensive Storm Before The Calm. We have released an incredible album by Frank Mills, entitled The Traveler. Through his magical melodies, this extraordinary pianist takes us to several points around the world. We are also gearing up to release the debut album by Bamboo — a new signing to the

Court date in Steinhoff case

The copyright interests of as many as nine Canadian record labels are alleged to be affected in a case wherein R. Steinhoff Wholesale Inc. of Woodstock, Ont., and Richard Steinhoff each face 110 charges under Section 25 of Canada's Copyright Act. The label's allegedly affected are Capitol-EMI, CBS, MCA, Quality, Polygram, RCA, WEA, A&M, and Attic. The case took shape when the RCMP's London, Ont. detachment (in conjunction with Patrick Fox, Dir. of Investigative Services for CRIA) executed a search warrant at the Steinhoff warehouse in Oct. 1984. Approximately 30,000 pieces of imported record and cassette product were seized. The charges mentioned above involve manufactured and imported cassettes and LPs from various countries. It is alleged that, in dealing with the product, the defendants infringed the Canadian copyright interests of Canadian record company members of CRIA, the Canadian Recording Industry Association.

Richard Steinhoff was present for a brief court appearance on Apr. 15 in Woodstock, and is slated to appear in court again on May 6. A trial could take place as late as September of this year.

label. The members of this act hail from Peterborough. We foresee Power Station as being a smash success. Ashford & Simpson's Solid single has gone gold. George Thorogood will be touring Canada soon. Anne Murray, with Bruce Murray as her special guest, will headline Toronto's O'Keefe Centre in May. We are releasing the Hiding From Love single from Bruce. The single's video was produced by Tony Tobias. Looking at Aquarius Records, Corey Hart's First Offense has sold a quarter of a million records in Canada. Corey is finishing his follow-up LP, a record he is co-producing with Jon Astley and Phil Chapman. Anthem's Coney Hatch has been playing Canadian dates non-stop since the release of the Friction LP. Show reviews have been positive.

Rockline program readied by TBS

Telemedia Broadcasting Systems (TBS) has announced the formation of a new satellite radio network to provide affiliate radio stations with music specials and live programming on a regular basis.

According to Paul J. Williams, the system's Vice-President of Marketing, the first program to debut on the network in early April will be Rockline. A successful U.S. program for the last four years, Rockline has been adapted for North America. The format presents a guest artist's music while allowing listeners to call in and talk live with the artist via an '800' number.

Says Williams: "What we essentially have accomplished is that Canadian calls will now be integrated into the weekly 90-min. program. Canadian artists will also be regularly featured guests, and we will even originate a number of Rockline programs from some of our Canadian affiliate studios."

KLOS Los Angeles radio personality Bob Coburn will be Rockline's host. The program will air live via satellite Monday evenings at 11:30 PM EST.

Hardy to Roy Thomson Hall

Duke Street recording artist Hagood Hardy, currently on release with his Chasing A Dream LP, has been firmed for an Apr. 28 date at Roy Thomson Hall in Toronto.

R&B legend Sledge at Bluenote

R&B legend Percy Sledge has been firmed for 2 dates at the Club Bluenote in Toronto — May 6 and 7.

Sylum showcase at Diamond

Alert recording act Sylum will showcase their self-titled debut LP Apr. 29 at The Diamond in Toronto.

Vulture Culture gold for Parsons

Vulture Culture, the Arista LP release by Alan Parsons Project, has gone gold in Canada (50,000 units sold). The album hit the magic number after only 6 weeks on release. A second release, Days Are Numbers, will ship Apr. 15. Vulture Culture is Parsons' ninth LP since forming a partnership with Eric Woolfson in 1974.

New Cohen LP from Columbia

Leonard Cohen has come out of seclusion with the release of his new Columbia album, Various Positions, his first in five years. He will also be available for interviews. The LP was produced by John Lissauer at New York's Quadrasonic Sound, and features Jennifer Warnes on additional vocals. Cohen also handles guitar on the session. His last album, Recent Songs, was released in 1980.

Music Director nod for Wright

Priscilla Wright's Paylode single, Heartbeat, made an impression on The Music Director, the respected U.S. A/C programming service. Her single, distributed by Frank Fara's Kansas-based Comstock Records, scored No. 3 on the New Singles This Week section. The single is also gaining favour with Canadian A/C programmers, several of which subscribe to the Music Director.

New Loverboy underway

A new Loverboy LP, their first in almost 3 years, is currently being produced by Tom Allen At Vancouver's Little Mountain Sound and Mushroom studios. Jeff Burns, Vice President A&R for CBS Records Canada, tags the band's sound as "more aggressive and updated with the times in style and production." A tour is now being pencilled in for August.

Meat Loaf releases on RCA

Meat Loaf returns to the business with Bad Attitude, his first album for RCA, the release label for North America. He releases in the U.K. on the Arista label. The new set, produced by Meat Loaf, Mack and Paul Jacobs, contains a duet with Who vocalist Roger Daltrey. Modern Girl will be released as the first single. Meat Loaf's Bat Out Of Hell, released on Columbia, his previous release label, attained diamond (1 million units sold) in Canada.

Gaye tribute released by CBS

CBS is readying the release of Dream Of A Lifetime, the last studio album from the late Marvin Gaye. The LP was recorded shortly before his death. Sanctified Lady will be the first single, issued as a 7" and 12".

Katrina & Waves make comeback

In view of U.S. action on the Capitol release of Walking On Sunshine by Katrina & The Waves, several Canadian radio stations are now adding the single which was originally released on the Attic label in Canada in August of last year. The single was taken from the group's self-titled U.S. release, a reworking of songs from their first 2 albums, Walking On Sunshine and Katrina & The Waves 2. "The songs were re-recorded from the ground up," explained Attic's Ralph Alfonso. "Capitol wanted them re-recorded and the band felt they could improve on the sound. Because it's clicking in the States, response here is stronger and the song sounds better. The American action is really helping." Alfonso concludes with, "Now everyone knows who the band is." The Cambridge, Ontario-based quartet, fronted by Katrina Leskanich (lead vocals and guitar), have just completed a successful European tour, and are putting together a Canadian tour for May.

WEA Montreal promo reps service Tokyo Rose single by Idle Eyes to Montreal radio in traditional Oriental garb at Sept. Heure Bonhomme - CBC (l to r) Marc Carpentier, Johanne Bertrand, Jean Francois Dore, and WEA's Maureen Corbett and Jean Lamothe.

Young to Polygram

Polygram Canada President Peter Erdmann has announced the addition of Art Young to the label in a consultant capacity, to run Polygram's new TV Division. Formerly with K-Tel, Young is currently assembling a merchandising team in advance of an early fall release for the division's product.

ALBUMS

KENNY LOGGINS - Pop
Vox Humana - Columbia - FC-39174-H
 Loggins should reprise the success of Footloose with this collection. Title track taken as the first single. Produced by Loggins, Canadian David Foster, and Michael Omar-tian. Libretto.

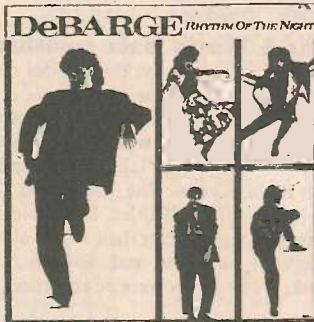

IDLE EYES - Pop
Idle Eyes - WEA - 25-17511-P
 A new Canadian signing to WEA, Idle Eyes possess a clean pop/white reggae sound focussed on lead vocalist Tad Campbell. Herein might lie a problem though, as Campbell's stark warble coupled with Glenn Smith's tremolo-laden guitars reminds one all too easily of Men At Work's Colin Hay. Lyrically, the songs are occasionally repetitive, addressing love, treason, and danger. Perhaps the band can shoot for a more autonomous stance on future outings.

Inner sleeve with libretto. Produced by the band and Declan O'Doherty (Ann Mortifee) at Vancouver's Ocean Sound Studios. Tokyo Rose, rapidly scaling the RPM 100 survey, taken as the first single. Also key is All Day. Jacket photo should encourage impulse trade at retail. Cancon.

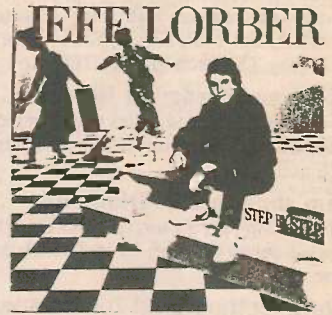

CONWAY TWITTY - Country
Don't Call Him A Cowboy
 Warner Bros - 92-52071-P

Another notch in Twitty's belt. The title track, taken as a single, has cracked the RPM Country 60. Starting out in the '50s as a rock and roll artist, Twitty switched to country, and remains one of this music form's most consistent and likeable hit-makers. Catchy jacket photo. Produced by Twitty, Dee Henry, and Ron Treat.

DeBARGE - Pop Rhythm Of The Night
 Gordy - G6123-M
 Consistent pop/funk outfit fronted by the talented El DeBarge. Includes the title track as well as the Giorgio Moroder-produced Single Heart. Libretto. Various producer credits.

JEFF LORBER - Funk
Step By Step - Arista - AL8-8269-N
 Very fresh sounding LP from synth instrumentalist Lorber. Key: the title track and Every Woman Needs It. Produced by Mic Murphy and David Frank.

PARACHUTE CLUB - Pop
Moving Thru' The Moonlight
 RCA - KXL1-9003-N
 Dance remixes released in a limited edition. Key track: John Benitez' treatment of Rise Up. Various producer credits. Cancon.

LIMAH - Pop
Don't Suppose - EMI America - ST-17142-F
 Bubblegum funk from teen idol Limahl. Key: the title track and Never Ending Story. Produced by De Harris and Tim Palmer. Never Ending Story produced by Giorgio Moroder.

Sumsion video scores in Nashville

Terry Sumsion's video on his single, Midnight Invitation has not only been accepted for rotation by the Nashville Network but it scored a first at RPM: the first independent country video to be delivered to RPM. Sumsion's manager/producer Brian Ferriman dropped off a copy of the video which was shot at Toronto's Eastern Sound and through Scarborough Valley. Terry is currently climbing the RPM Country 60 with his Savannah single, The Loneliest Star In Texas, a song he co-wrote with Wayne Heimbecker. Brian is one of the most successful of indie country label owners because he approaches country with a rock/pop promotion attitude, which has more than doubled the yearly gross for Sumsion and Terry Carisse. The latter is also quite visible on country charts with his single, Counting The I Love Yous. New to the Savannah label is the Matt Minglewood Band, a Maritime-based country/rock group that scored much success a few years ago.

Mary Quartarone to ACME

Mary Quartarone, who operates her own MQM Communications, has assumed the duties of Executive Secretary for ACME. Mary was a major PR factor for CIRPA from 1981 through 1984 and will be a welcome asset to the country academy. ACME's Board of Directors for 1984-85 are John Gold (President), Roger Dupuis (Vice President), Elizabeth Henning (Secretary-Treasurer), and Directors, Gordon Burnett, Brian Ferriman, Ralph Carlson, Gary Fjellgaard, and Bill Maxim. ACME is currently gearing for their annual Country Music Awards and 5-day conference in Edmonton (Sept. 2-9).

Peever booking Yellow Rose

Southwestern Ontario's newest country showplace, The Yellow Rose (Cambridge) is expected to be in operation by mid-June. David Peever, exclusive booking agent for the club, advises that the 600 seat location "will bring new excitement to the industry and we will be featuring top Canadian acts along with a number of affordable U.S. artists as well." Grand opening date will be reported at a later date.

R.W. White moves to Texas

Canadian country music veteran R.W. White has moved his base of operation to Amarillo, Texas. He recently launched his new Lone Star single, Closin' Time (Came One Drink Too Soon), a Rawson/Haggerty co-penning. The single was produced by Tony Migliore at Roy Clark's Sound Emporium and The Tox Bos studios and qualifies as 3-parts Cancon (MAL). Toronto-born White was teetted on rock and R&B in the early '60s as a drummer/vocalist, backing many of the early Canadian recording acts. He soloed himself on the Tamarac label in 1964. He travelled the world in the following years and gradually changed his direction to country, working the club circuit playing drums, fiddle and guitar as well as working as a session man.

Jim Haggart — a new beginning

It's been 10 years since Jim Haggart was country news, when he and his brother Don were known from coast to coast as the bright new duo from Cape Breton. They first hit the RPM Country chart with their Arpeggio single, I'm Coming Home, on Sept. 9, 1972. Their popularity became obvious as the single climbed the charts and on Nov. 23 of that same year, they were featured on the front page of RPM, a rare happening for a country recording act.

More releases followed and so did the chart action: Nashville Girl, Pictou County Jail, and Follow Your Heart elevated the brother team to new heights of popularity and were instrumental in them being nominated for Juno and Big Country awards.

Jim and Don Haggart disappeared from the scene almost as quickly as they arrived. Being a very close team, Don's decision to marry and settle down was shattering news to Jim, who took a long hiatus from the business. He wrote a lot of songs and did a lot of thinking. In 1979 he wrote a poem, My Little Girl, which became a commercial wall plaque through which was raised a substantial sum of money for UNICEF. The poem was published through World Book Childcraft.

Jim Haggart finally emerged as a solo act and took his one-man show on the road through the U.S. Midwest and Western Canadian provinces. He now makes his home in Edmonton.

Haggart formed his own label and publishing company flying the banner of Picton, and debuts with Lots Of Tequila, one of his own originals. The flip, Hard Times In The Maritimes, is perhaps a commentary on his past experiences. Both sides were produced by John Arpin at Toronto's McLearn Place. Arpin also supplies keyboards.

HELP WANTED ADS of 25 words or less are offered on a one time basis FREE OF CHARGE. Free ads must be mailed or telexed to RPM by Tuesday noon to appear in the next issue. Free ads will not be accepted on the telephone. Please limit copy to 25 words. OTHER ADS and HELP WANTED ADS of over 25 words, or ads requiring box numbers will be charged at our usual rate of 50 cents per word (minimum 25 words or $12.50). Name, address and telephone number to be included in word count. Address all ads to: RPM Magazine, 6 Brentcliffe Road, Toronto. M4G 3Y2.

TV NEWS DIRECTOR WANTED

Immediate opening for News Director-anchor person for twin stick TV operation in North Bay, operated by Mid-Canada Television. Send tapes and resumes to Larry Gavin, Director of Operations, 699 Froot Road, Sudbury, Ontario. P3C 5A3. (705) 674-8301.

NEWS ANNOUNCER FOR NIAGARA

News announcer required for Niagara Peninsula AM radio. Strong delivery a must. A minimum of 3 years experience. Immediate opening. 416-735-3334.

OPEN-LINE HOST AVAILABLE

Available - extraordinary open-line host. One of Canada's best female, open-line hosts and a master of public affairs, is seeking a challenging position with a well established radio or television station anywhere in Canada. There are lots of "talkers" on our airwaves, but it is the exceptional host that keeps the advertisers coming back for more. My media portfolio and a short phone conversation will convince you that you're dealing with a calibre of talent unequalled in Canada. 1-403-453-5267.

NEWS DIRECTOR FOR PRINCE ALBERT

CKBI Television accepting applications for News Director. Leadership abilities a must. Send resume to: Jack Cannon, 22 - 10th St. East, Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. S6V 3A5.

OWNERS

Your only real weapon against this recession is a very, very clever, extremely hard working General Manager. 1-403-453-5267.
