SINCE her early years in Bowmanville, Ontario, Kay O'Neill, CBC morning commentator for Manitoba and Saskatchewan, has always been an ardent horsewoman. At Tuxedo stables near Winnipeg the other day, just as she was about to leave for a canter on Mrs. Lillian Isaac's heavy hunter El Capitan, the Times cameraman snapped our cover picture. "Cappy" stands sixteen-one (16 hands, 1 inch, to you) and is eight years old. He has won many ribbons at Manitoba horse-shows.

Miss O'Neill's life has been a busy one since she came to Winnipeg in May, 1950 (at the height of the Red River flood). Almost before she had unpacked her bags, she was rushed off to Morris, Manitoba, to cover the flood aftermath there. On her return, she plunged into a series of human interest stories about the railway strike, and then had to cover the completion of the great pipeline project bringing oil from the Alberta fields to the Winnipeg refinery. A little later she flew to Churchill, Manitoba, on the shore of Hudson Bay, in an R.C.A.F. Dakota. Last year the Royal Tour was her biggest assignment, and she broadcast morning commentaries and special items from Saskatoon and Regina.

The Manitoba Winter Fair at Brandon has been one of Miss O'Neill's favourite assignments, and last year a Times cameraman caught her in a magnificent rigout of blue jeans and rubber boots, busy at the task of hosing down one of the champion bulls. At Shilo Camp, this intrepid young lady spent some time under canvas in the dead of winter during winter training exercises. During the civil defence "bombing" of Winnipeg, she flew with one of the "attacking" planes over the city—a night flight, much complicated by searchlight beams. Recently Miss O'Neill's morning commentaries have struck a rather serious note, including interviews with the CBC's well-known United Nations observer, Peter Stursberg, and with Dr. Victor Lowenfeldt, eminent child psychologist.

Kay O'Neill is a native of Bowmanville, and a graduate of Queen's, where for a time she worked on the Queen's Journal, oldest undergraduate newspaper in Canada. Her journalistic career also included a session with Editor George James of Bowmanville's venerable Canadian Statesman, one of Ontario's oldest weeklies, and several years with the Canadian Press in Toronto. In Winnipeg she works in close association with the CBC Talks Department and with Talks Producers Catherine MacIver and David Walker.

In addition to horseback riding, her first love, Miss O'Neill plays a keen game of badminton and takes a general interest in all forms of outdoor sport. In town during the long western winters, symphony concerts, ballet, and theatre attract her, and she has even been known to put in an evening or two baby sitting.

Miss O'Neill herself is a rather tall young lady, with medium dark hair and green eyes. She takes her work seriously, and has a quite stern devotion to duty—necessary in view of her heavy schedule of broadcasts. She is heard daily, Monday to Friday, on CBW and CBK, in 15-minute morning commentaries (CBW, 9:45 a.m. CDT, 8:45 a.m. CST; CBK, 8:45 a.m. MDT, 7:45 a.m. MST), and anyone who thinks that is an easy schedule should try it sometime. Her talks range over many subjects, and include interviews with prominent people.

« « NOTES » »

Religious Period. Rev. Andrew Weir, United Church, Charlottetown, Prince Edward Island.

W-1:30 p.m. K-11:30 a.m. X-11:30 a.m.

Invitation to Music. When the winter concert season ends, James Fassett of CBS turns himself into a species of super disk-jockey — maintaining the same level of interest that has been sustained by the New York Philharmonic-Symphony. He uses classical recordings from all sources, combining them with his own authoritative commentary and with tape-recorded interviews with celebrities in the realm of music.

W-2:00 p.m. W-1:00 p.m. X-12:00 noon

Church of the Air. Right Reverend Gower, Bishop of New Westminster. From Vancouver.

Dom. 2:30 p.m. MDT

Cuckoo Clock House. In their next two visits to this program, young listeners will hear dramatized extracts from a fantasy and a true story. This Sunday, in the Story Room, Bill Needles will introduce The Stream That Stood Still, a book by Beverly Nichols, a continuation of the book The Tree That Sat Down, heard on the program recently. Listeners will be able to renew acquaintance with the witch, Miss Smith, and her three naughty toads. Next week's story is Bay of the North by Ronald Syme, an account of some of the exploits of Pierre Radisson, the Canadian explorer. From Toronto.

Dom. 3:00 p.m. MDT

Critically Speaking. Clyde Gilmour on movies, Nathan Cohen on the ballet festival, and Frank Underhill on books.

W-3:30 p.m. K-2:30 p.m. X-1:30 p.m.

Don Wright Chorus. Fourteen-voice chorus conducted by Don Wright. From London, Ontario.

I've Got You Under My Skin; Get On Board; Sweet and Low; Because I Love You; When I Grow Too Old To Dream; My Mother's Eyes; Ave Maria.

Dom. 4:00 p.m. MDT

Sunday Evening Hour. This program is currently presenting a series of talks by Ottawa churchmen, on the Ten Commandments. Today: Very Rev. Howard H. Clarke (Anglican)—The Seventh Commandment.

W-6:00 p.m. K-5:00 p.m. X-4:00 p.m.

Little Symphonies. CBC orchestra with an Australian conductor, John Bishop. From Montreal.

Fantasia for Strings (Robert Hughes).

W-6:30 p.m. K-5:30 p.m. X-4:30 p.m.

Leave Your Name and Number. A new series featuring Barbara Kelly and Bernard Braden, prepared specially for Canadian listeners by the BBC. Each Sunday, the Bradens (Barbara Kelly is Mrs. B.) will introduce a couple of Canadian artists who are currently appearing on the London stage. They will be supported by Canadian actress Joan Miller, and Norman Shelley, one of Britain's most versatile radio-actors. Today's guests will be singer Bill O'Connor from Sault Ste. Marie and composer Bob Farnon from Toronto. Since his discharge from the Royal Canadian Navy in London in 1946, O'Connor has appeared in Follow the Girls, Cage Me a Peacock and Brigadoon, in addition to radio work for the BBC and appearances on TV. Bob Farnon, formerly of The Happy Gang, went to England with the Canadian army and stayed on to win success as a composer, conductor and arranger. He wrote the score for Spring in Park Lane, a movie starring Anna Neagle and Michael Wilding, and did the music arrangements for the film version of the late Ivor Novello's play, The Dancing Years.

Dom. 6:30 p.m. MDT

Musical Comedies. CBC Light Opera Company conducted by Samuel Hershoren; Ernest Morgan, producer. From Toronto.

Selections from The Desert Song (Romberg); The Quaker Girl (Monckton); Gypsy Love (Lehar); Three Musketeers (Friml); Annie Get Your Gun (Berlin).

W-7:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

Stage 52. Who Killed Cock Robin? an original play by Alan King. All the action takes place in a Canadian courtroom where Sydney Sparrow is being tried for the murder of Cockford Robbins, known familiarly as Cock Robin. Robbins is a sort of vagrant philosopher whose influence on young people has become an offence to a newspaper columnist, Sparrow. In a disturbance brought about by Sparrow's journalistic attacks on the philosopher, Robbins has been killed—and Sparrow has confessed that he struck the fatal blow. A curious situation develops when Sparrow insists upon pleading guilty. His counsel is faced with the necessity of defending a man who evidently doesn't want to be defended. King has worked this out to a surprising denouement. From Toronto.

W-8:00 p.m. K-7:00 p.m. X-6:00 p.m.

Weekend Review. Max Freedman, Ottawa parliamentary correspondent for the Winnipeg Free Press, has joined the panel of speakers heard in rotation in this series, and will be tonight's speaker. His newspaper career has taken him on frequent trips to London and Washington, and he has reported the sessions of the UN General Assembly. Recently he returned from a tour of Western Europe.

Bill O'Connor

W-9:10 p.m. K-8:10 p.m. X-7:10 p.m.

Winnipeg Concert Orchestra. Orchestra conducted by Eric Wild; Martin Hoherman, 'cellist; Norman Lucas, producer. From Winnipeg.

The Roman Carnival (Berlioz); Concerto in A Minor for Cello and Orchestra, Op. 33 (Saint-Saens); Passacaglia on a Well Known Theme (Jacob); Coppelia Ballet Suite (Delius); Eugene Onegin (Tchaikovsky).

Tchaikovsky's musical and dramatic setting based on Alexander Pushkin's celebrated poem Eugene Onegin is possibly the greatest of Russian operas. Jacob's "well known theme" in the Passacaglia is the charming old Cockney ballad, Oranges and Lemons Say the Bells of St. Clements. Martin Hoherman began his musical career in his native Poland, and has worked and performed in many European cities, including Belgrade and Sofia. During the war the German police arrested him and he had many hairbreadth escapes before getting away. He travelled subsequently through North Africa, India and Ceylon, performing in many cities.

W-10:00 p.m. K-6:00 p.m. X-5:00 p.m.

Chamber Music. Chamber music group. From Vancouver.

Quartet in C Minor, Opus 18, No. 4 (Beethoven).

W-11:00 p.m. K-10:00 p.m. X-9:00 p.m.

House of Commons. There were good debates in the old House of Commons in the seventies and eighties. So good, in fact, that one of our more curious Governors-General, denied by constitutional practice from ever entering the House, begged the government to build him a secret chamber from which he could at least hear the more lively bits of repartee. In another of his talks about the old House, Norman Ward, associate professor of Political Science, University of Saskatchewan, tells of these debates and how they were reported to a fascinated public. From Winnipeg.

« « NOTES » »

Kindergarten of the Air. This week's topic is The Garden. Today, things to do; Tuesday, things to help with; Wednesday, using the garden; Thursday, planting plants; Friday, visitors we like. From Toronto.

W-9:15 a.m. K-12:00 noon X-11:00 a.m.

Art Every Day. Talks by Beatrice Lennie, Vancouver sculptress. Today: Art in our homes—decorating, flower arrangement, hobbies, and art objects.

W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

Arctic Adventures. A new series of stories for young listeners written and narrated by James Warren Chafe. Catherine MacIver, producer. From Winnipeg. In the first program listeners will be introduced to Dick Dollard, an Air Cadet who, on his seventeenth birthday was on the way to realizing his two most cherished ambitions—to fly and to explore the frozen north. As a reward for winning the rifle-shooting competition in his squadron he has been given two weeks at the Air Force station at Frobisher Bay on Baffin Island. One day during a flight, the plane is blown off course and develops engine trouble. The pilot orders Dick to bail out and as he drifts down he sees the plane crash in flames. His first adventure in the north begins as he starts off through the snow to see if he can find any sign of life.

W-5:00 p.m.
Tuesday, May 13, K-5:30 p.m., X-4:30 p.m.

Happy Motoring. Singers Terry Dale and Wally Koster of Toronto invite listeners to do some happy motoring with them on an imaginary tour across Canada with conductor Howard Cable in the driver's seat, and producer

Jackie Rae in charge of maps and compass. The program will be heard every Monday, Wednesday and Friday. First stop will be at Yarmouth, N.S., where they will sing and play before heading for Windsor, N.S. Wednesday will find them making their way through Halifax; and on Friday they'll be seeing Cape Breton. Next week they will tour Newfoundland, Prince Edward Island, and New Brunswick, and then make their musical way, week by week, to the west coast.

Dom. 7:15 p.m. MDT

Summerfallow. Tonight this program salutes the nurse on the rural route in a play by Alix Bury and Pauline Siddons of Vancouver. It describes the variety of assignments the rural nurse gets, the personal hardships and sacrifices that are part of her daily round, and the heart-warming incidents that make her career a most satisfying one. The story of this particular rural nurse has a happy ending, for she falls in love with a handsome Mountie stationed in the same village. From Toronto.

W-9:30 p.m. K-9:30 p.m. X-8:30 p.m.

Bob McMullin Show. Orchestra conducted by Bob McMullin with Jean Letourneau, tenor, as this week's guest. Bernard Deaville, producer. From Edmonton.

Orchestra: Full Moon and Empty Arms; Sometimes I Feel Like a Motherless Child; Dizzy Fingers; Blue Tango; It's a Grand Night for Singing. Jean Letourneau: Midnight in Paris; Thine Alone; French Canadian Medley—Ah si mon moine voulait danser, A la claire fontaine, Gay lon la, Vive la Canadienne, Au pres de ma blonde, and Youpe, youpe, sur la riviere.

W-10:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

Jake Park's Band. Continental band conducted by Jake Park, William Goertzen, baritone. Alfred Parr, producer. From Winnipeg.

Band: Cialy-do-Baksy Polka (Polish); German Waltz Medley; The Jolly Trumpeter's Polka; Forget Me Not Schottische (Kovarik); Antoska Polka (Polish); Dakota Waltz (R. Gosz); Grasshopper Polka; Helena Polka. William Goertzen: The Morn Is Bright With Rose Light (Italian traditional); The Jolly Farmer (Swedish traditional); Has Anybody Seen My Angeline (traditional).

W-10:30 p.m. K-11:30 p.m. X-10:30 p.m.

Guest Appearance. Shirley Carlson, pianist. From Winnipeg.

Shirley Carlson

Sonata in F Minor (Scarlatti); Concert Etude in D Flat (Liszt); Mes Joies, and Scherzo in C Major (Chopin); Feux a Artifice (Debussy).

A native of Prince Albert, Saskatchewan, Shirley Carlson has received her musical training in Saskatoon. She achieved unusual distinction last year when she won all senior piano classes at the Saskatchewan Musical Festival and the most coveted scholarship. She holds the associate (Royal Conservatory) and licentiate (Royal Schools) diplomas. Her ability has been commended by John Clement, English musician.

W-11:00 p.m. K-12:15 a.m. X-11:15 p.m.

Classics for Today. String orchestra conducted by Jean de Rimanczy. From Vancouver.

Rigaudon (Rameau); Miniature Symphony in D (Adam Carse); Pupazzetti Suite (Casella).

W-11:30 p.m. K-8:30 p.m. X-7:30 p.m.

Two New Governors Appointed to CBC

R. J. Fry of Winnipeg Is Western Representative

Two governors of the Canadian Broadcasting Corporation have been appointed to three-year terms from April 1, 1952, A. D. Dunton, the chairman of the board announced in Ottawa April 24.

They are Gordon A. Winter, a prominent young business man in St. John's, and Roy J. Fry of Winnipeg, an executive of the T. Eaton Company.

The appointments bring to eleven the number of governors of the CBC, as provided in the legislation enacted at the last session of Parliament when the Canadian Broadcasting Act, 1936, was amended. One of the provisions was to enlarge the Board of Governors from nine to eleven as recommended by the Massey Commission "in order to make it more widely representative."

featured artists, arrangers, conductors and composers. The number of programs in the catalogue has grown past the 70 mark since the Transcription Service made its experimental start in 1949.

The broad plan of the present recording schedule has been mapped to develop a truly varied catalogue. In each group of four programs, an effort is made to include one of serious music, usually recorded by a chamber group such as the Parlow String Quartet or the Winnipeg Strings;

Headquarters for the Transcription Service is an office on the ninth floor of the Radio Canada Building, which floor also houses the Latin American section of the International Service.

Already this year, recording sessions have been held in Vancouver, Winnipeg and Toronto. The coming months will see Miss FitzGerald shuttling back and forth between Montreal and Toronto as well as carrying out plans for a recording tour of the Maritimes.

Most of the items in the catalogue are set up as 15-minute or half-hour programs. Each program consists of music and a script telling about the

As the sun moves across the sky and listeners in Europe turn off their radios to go to bed, the CBC transmitters at Sackville, New Brunswick, turn their attention to Latin America.

However, it may come as a surprise that through the CBC Transcription Service Canadian embassies and trade missions abroad are boosting the work of Canadian musicians and composers. Our diplomats abroad jumped at the chance to exploit this new version of the diplomatic note and there was a quick response from foreign audiences and broadcasting systems.

The Transcription Service catalogue reads like a miniature Who's Who of music in Canada. We find composition (Continued on page 6)

« « NOTES » »

Morning Devotions. The speaker this week on CBW will be Rev. F. J. Boyd, Anglican Church; and on CBX, Rev. John McLeod, St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, Calgary.
W-9:35 a.m. X-10:00 a.m.

My Own Mother. The life of yesterday in many lands. Today's speaker: Jane Douglas Lane of Kent. From Montreal.
W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

CBC Wednesday Night

Shadow of the Tree. A full-length play by Joseph Schull; J. Frank Willis, producer; music composed by Phil Nimmons and conducted by Samuel Hersenhoren. From Toronto. Shadow of the Tree made its debut in the Sunday night Stage series in September, 1947, as a one-hour production. Then Bernard Braden rewrote it as a stage play and took it to England with him. He failed to interest a stage director in it, but was instrumental in having it televised by the BBC and also presented as a BBC radio play. The stage version won the London Little Theatre Award of $1,000. Tonight's version is an elaboration of the original radio play. About the plot, Schull says: "I suppose it could be boiled down to the idea that personal integrity and a sense of individual responsibility are the only armour with which the man of today can face the terrifying prospects of his age."
W-7:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

Distinguished Artists. Stefan Kozakovich, baritone. From Toronto.

Legende de la Suage (Massenet); An die Leier and Die Post (Schubert); The Steppe (Lobacheff); Song of the Reapers (Novitsky-Hlushkov); A Memory (Ganz); When I Think upon Maldens (Michael Head); Nemico della Patria (Giordana).

W-9:30 p.m. K-8:30 p.m. X-7:30 p.m.

New Writing Abroad. The second of four talks about new literary developments in England, France, Italy and the United States. Last week's talk dealt with new writing in England. Tonight, Robert Speaight, well-known actor, producer and critic, will discuss new writing in France. Mr. Speaight has been active in the theatre in England and France, and twice served as adjudicator for the Dominion Drama Festival. He has contributed to the BBC's Third Programme and some time ago broadcast a reading of T. S. Eliot's The Wasteland on the CBC. From Toronto.
W-10:00 p.m. K-7:30 p.m. X-6:30 p.m.

London Studio Concert. BBC Scottish Orchestra conducted by Ian Whyte. BBC transcription.

Les Preludes (Liszt); Jeux d'enfants (Bizet); Eightsome Reel (arr. Ian Whyte).
W-10:30 p.m.

Supplement. Beth Dean, American ballet dancer who spent five years studying and doing research on the Maori culture of New Zealand and that of the Australian Aborigine, was in Vancouver recently with her husband Victor Carrel. Three broadcasts were recorded and will be heard tonight, May 21 and 28. Tonight, Miss Dean's talk is sub-titled Stone Age Riches and deals with the culture of the Australian Aborigine. Next week she will speak on The Maori People of New Zealand and Their Dance and will sing several Maori songs. The final broadcast will consist of a recital of Maori songs by Miss Dean and Mr. Carrel. From Vancouver.
K-11:15 p.m. X-10:15 p.m.

Three Contest Series Conclude On Network

Winners In Nos Futures Etoiles, Singing Stars, and Opportunity Knocks, Share Honours

When Rudolph Bing, general manager of the Metropolitan Opera Company, is in Montreal the end of this month for a "Met" performance, he will audition two young Canadian singers brought to his attention when they won the latest series of Nos futures etoiles, the CBC French network talent program. They are Margaret Kerr, Toronto mezzo-soprano, and Jonathan Vickers, tenor from Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. Both are studying at the Royal Conservatory of Music of Toronto. They were two of 40 who were selected from 141 singers from across Canada to take part in the series. They plan to use their prize money of $500 each to help pay for singing lessons. Besides the cash award, each gets a 26-weeks' engagement on the CBC French network.

These young winners are experienced performers. Miss Kerr, who was born in Toronto in 1925, has been studying voice for seven years. Now she's concentrating on opera. She sang the title role in the CBC Opera Company's production of Bizet's Carmen, and the role of Maddelena in Verdi's Rigoletto, produced at the Royal Conservatory. She has also sung with the Toronto Symphony Orchestra. Her plans for the summer include working up her repertoire for a recital in the fall, and keeping house as Mrs. Harold Lawrence).

Vickers, 26, has studied voice on and off for eight years, but only during the last two as a full-time student. He has given a number of recitals in Western Canada, and in the east under the auspices of the Ontario Department of Education. He was a soloist in the performance of Messiah broadcast from Toronto last Christmas.

Two other young singers walked off with substantial prizes recently—23-year-old soprano Marguerite Gignac of Windsor, Ontario, and 24-year-old Robert Savoie of Montreal, winners in the Singing Stars of Tomorrow contest. Now, adding to their good fortune, they are off on a concert tour of Ontario and Western Canada with Rex Battle, conductor of the Singing Stars orchestra. They expect to fill 17 engagements before the end of May.

As first-prize winner, Miss Gignac's award was $1,000, and Savoie, whose voice was judged best among the male contestants, won $750. Two other finalists, each of whom received a $500 scholarship, are mezzo-soprano Joan Hall, 23, of Winnipeg; and baritone John Dunbar, 25, of Victoria. Contestants were not judged on voice quality alone. They got marks as well for diction, ability to handle languages, interpretation and style, musicianship, rhythmic sense, technique and personality.

Next month CBC Dominion's Opportunity Knocks completes its fifth broadcast year, and on June 30 its summer replacement, the Winner's Show, goes on the air to feature the first-prize winners of this season's three contest series—William Blaine Williams, baritone, Angela Antonelli, soprano, and the winner of the series now in progress. Williams, a Hamiltonian, and Miss Antonelli, from Guelph, Ontario, are studying voice in Toronto.

BBC Hour. This Friday is the 9th anniversary of the famous R.A.F. raid in which 19 bombers commanded by Wing Commander Guy Gibson, V.C., D.S.O., D.F.C., let loose 350 million tons of water by smashing the Moehne and Eder Dams in the Ruhr, causing more damage to Hitler's war effort than some of the 1,000-bomber raids. Tonight's program will be a reconstruction of the dramatic events before and during the attack. The script is by Paul Brickhill, a fighter pilot. He knew several of the "dam-busters" and has based his story on first-hand information, official records, and Gibson's own account of the raid in his book Enemy Coast Ahead. (Next week the BBC Hour moves to Tuesday night).

tions by the late J. J. Gagnier, Dr. Healey Willan, Claude Champagne, Alexander Brott, Murray Adaskin, John Weinzwieg and Jean Coulthard.

The conductors include Sir Ernest MacMillan, Jean Beaudet, Roland Leduc, Geoffrey Waddington, Jean de Rimanoczy, Eric Wild, and John Avison. The list of the artists, arrangers, and choral, instrumental and chamber groups would also read like a list of old friends to the Canadian radio listener and concert-goer.

At present, each new program recorded is ordered in sets of 75. Then the job of world-wide distribution begins. Some idea of the extent of this operation is gained from a list of the places Transcription Service records reach.

Within the Commonwealth, the list includes the New Zealand Broadcasting Service, the Australian Broadcasting Commission, All-India Radio and Radio Pakistan, the Canadian High Commissioner in South Africa, the Canadian Trade Commissioners in the British West Indies and Hong Kong, the CBC Overseas Unit in London and all CBC programs centres across Canada.

Needlepointers. Talks by Hazel Stevenson on how to beat the high cost of home decorating. Today: Tricks in camouflage. From Toronto. W-3:45 p.m. K-3:45 p.m. X-2:45 p.m.

Sleepytime Story Teller. Today's story: Cinderella, told by Stan Chapman of Campbellton, N.B. W-5:00 p.m. K-5:30 p.m. X-4:30 p.m.

Voice of Firestone. Orchestra and chorus conducted by Howard Barlow, with Barbara Gibson as the guest singer. Artists booked to appear on the program during the next few weeks include Cesare Siepi, Lois Hunt and Leonard Warren. W-7:00 p.m. K-8:30 p.m. X-7:30 p.m.

Tempo Thirteen. A new series of plays, each one of which will have a different tempo, representing the various rhythms of the dance—and the dance author Stanley Mann has in mind, he says, is the dance of life. The first "tempo" is the minuet; the play ventures into the realm of suspense, witnesses a man in terror watching his very life being auctioned off in a gallery, bidding against time (Mann says) and the treachery of a Southern belle whose innate tempo is that of the minuet. Arthur Hiller, producer; music composed and conducted by Morris Surdin. From Toronto. Dom. 7:30 p.m. MDT

Recital. Chamber music group—Stephen Kondaks, violist; Rafael Masella, clarinetist; and John Newmark, pianist. From Montreal.

Kegelstadt Trio, K. 498 (Mozart); Maerchenerzaehungen (Schumann). W-9:30 p.m. K-11:30 p.m. X-10:30 p.m.

Music from Manitoba. Orchestra conducted by Richard Seaborn; Kerr Wilson, baritone. Norman Lucas, producer. From Winnipeg.

Orchestra: Slavonic Dance No. 8 (Dvorak); Gypsy Wildflower (Zamenik); Syncopated Clock (Anderson); Pavanne from American Symphonette (Gould); La Sorella (Gallini). Kerr Wilson: I Love Life; Mayday Carol.

W-10:00 p.m. K-9:00 p.m. X-8:00 p.m.

Vancouver Drama. The House My Father Built, by Alfred Harris, tells the tragic story of what can happen when parents, through constant bickering, build up a conflict within a child's mind. Bruno Gerussi will be heard in the leading role. Raymond Whitehouse, producer. From Vancouver. W-10:30 p.m. K-9:30 p.m. X-8:30 p.m.

Prairie Showcase. Tonight's guests are Ted Linskoog, violinist, and Helen Worden Adams, pianist, who will be heard in a varied program of classical and semi-classical music. From Edmonton. K-10:00 p.m. X-9:00 p.m.

Through Poets' Eyes. The second of two talks on the works of W. H. Auden, by Chester Duncan of the English department, University of Manitoba. Topic: The Sea and the Mirror—Life and Art. Catherine MacIver, producer. From Winnipeg. W-11:15 p.m. K-10:45 p.m. X-9:45 p.m.

PRAIRIE GARDENER

tender ones that require heat, such as tomatoes, should be held in warm quarters for another month.

2. "Hardening off" is a necessary treatment to prepare plants for outdoor living. Holding plants in a cold frame for ten days or so, decreasing the water supply slightly, and gradually exposing the plants to wind and weather is the standard method of hardening.

3. Cloudy weather before rain is ideal but if not available do the work in the late afternoon and early evening.

4. Plant slightly deeper than depth in plant boxes.

5. Set in moist soil. If possible water bed 24 hours in advance. Filling each hole with water and letting it soak in before setting plants in place is a good practice.

6. Set plants firmly pressing soil downward on the roots but without squeezing the stem.

7. Water box of plants a few hours before transplanting. Never remove plants from dry soil.

8. Pinch back snapdragons and similar plants at setting out time.

9. Tomatoes should be set in warm soil. Use sturdy plants not yet in flower. Don't plant too deeply.

10. The best cabbage plants for early use are ones that have been transplanted at least once and have a good ball of earth on each plant. These will provide earlier heads than plants grown in a frame and not transplanted.

11. In hot sunny weather give plants temporary shading after setting out.

12. In dry districts mulching around plants with finely divided rotted manure and peat will help keep soil moist and cool.

Next Season's Met Operas Announced

In Montreal recently, Rudolf Bing of the Metropolitan Opera announced plans for the 1952-53 season. The Saturday-afternoon performances of the "Met" have been broadcast across Canada and the U.S. for many years. For the next season, starting early in November, four new productions are being planned. They are Verdi's La Forza del Destino; Puccini's La Boheme (in English as well as in the original Italian); The Rake's Progress, Igor Stravinsky's first full-scale opera, with libretto by W. H. Auden; and Moussorgsky's Boris Godounov with English words by John Gutman—as it was first written and not in the Rimsky-Korsakoff version usually heard.

Operas to be heard from the "Met" next season will also include Don Pasquale by Donizetti, La Gioconda by Ponchielli, Lohengrin by Wagner, Samson and Dalila by Saint-Saens and Tosca by Puccini. All of these will be revivals which have not been heard at the "Met" for some years.

Queen's Plate Trials. On Saturday afternoons throughout the summer the regular lineup of programs on CBC Trans-Canada will be interrupted as necessary to make way for eye-witness accounts of outstanding sporting events—starting today with a visit to the Woodbine Racetrack in Toronto for the Queen's Plate Trials. Race commentator Del Mott, with Byng Whitteker, will be on hand, representing the listener at the track. From Toronto.

Facts about Films. This program has been extended two weeks so that the writers and the stars of two more movies may be presented on the air. Today, Mrs. Peter Churchill, author of the script for Odette, will be heard along with Anna Neagle and other stars from that film. Next Saturday, another English film and the people who worked on it—The Blue Lamp—will be featured. From Toronto.

Prairie Schooner. This Saturday Jimmy Gowler and the orchestra will be playing at the banquet for the City Newspapers' Managing Editors' Conference in Winnipeg. The program will be recorded for broadcast at the regular time.

Saludos Amigos. Don Roberto and orchestra; songs by Faye Thoms. Fred Diehl, producer. From Edmonton.

Bob Lyon (Don Roberto)

Orchestra: La Yuca; Jarabe Tapatío; Adios Muchachos; Jose Gonzales; The Breeze and I; El Rancho Grande. Faye Thoms: It Never Happens To Me; Sweetie Joe.

Here's Juliette. Orchestra conducted by Ricky Hyslop; vocalist Juliette. From Vancouver.

That Old Feeling; Let's Take an Old Fashioned Walk; Weaver of Dreams; Somewhere Along the Way; song topic, A Visit to the Park, will include the tune Strolling Through the Park and Row Row Row.

Mail Bag

The Deferred Possessive.

I was just reading the note on Norman Ward's talk, The House of Commons (CBC Times, April 27-May 3), and was intrigued by the statement that he wrote his script in "a converted actors' dressing room" at U. of S. I was on the staff at U. of S., but never heard of the converted actors. What happened to them?—H. B. Collier, Dept. of Biochemistry, University of Alberta, Edmonton.

(Note: The CBC TIMES humbly confesses that the temptation to commit deferred possessives is sometimes almost irresistible. We are thinking of a member of staff who rushed into the office recently to inform us about "the boy who delivers the newspaper's face," and of another who told an absorbing tale about "the man who borrowed the next door neighbour's perambulator's wife." For Professor Collier's delectation, however, perhaps we should record what is universally conceded to be the masterpiece in this form of literary art, which is the tale of a small boy who came to the teacher during recess and said, "Teacher, do you know little Willie Brown's sister's neck?" Upon the teacher's responding, "Ah—yes," he announced: "Well, she's fell into the creek up to it." The charm of this intricate art may be a partial explanation and excuse for the TIMES' reference to the conversion of actors at the University of Saskatchewan.)

We wish especially to say how much we appreciate the fact that CBC programs are intelligent, and not aimed at the teen-age and sub-moronic clan as seems so often the case with the commercial networks.—A. R. Lee, Gimli, Man.

Masefield's Good Friday.

I listened to your broadcast of John Masefield's Good Friday—though "listened" seems hardly the word to use, when one lived through that profoundly moving narrative, as I did, from beginning to end. I found myself wishing that Masefield might have been listening, imagining what it would have meant to him, who had put his vision of Good Friday into words, to hear those words come to life.—M. H., Crystal Springs, Saskatchewan.
