Sweep Jazz Jockey Poll

The favorite music of the nation's top jazz jockeys is modern all the way, both instrumentally and vocally, according to their votes in The Billboard's "Favorite Jazz Artists" poll this year. On the instrumental side, Miles Davis, one of the giants of the modern scene, landed in the No. 1 spot by a healthy margin, followed by Paul Desmond in second place, and with a three-way tie for third place between Erroll Garner, Ahmad Jamal and Julian (Cannonball) Adderley.

This year as last year, the Favorite Jazz Ork of the deejays was the Count Basie crew, with Duke Ellington and Stan Kenton in second and third place, respectively. The closest voting of all departments was in the Favorite Jazz Instrumental Group, where the MJQ nosed out the Dave Brubeck Quartet for the No. 1 spot, with the Miles Davis Quintet close behind in third place.

Frank Sinatra, after losing to Joe Williams in the 1959 poll, came back resoundingly this year to top Joe Williams and Mark Murphy for Favorite Male Jazz Singer. For the second straight year Ella Fitzgerald rolled up a very substantial lead to win the title of Favorite Female Jazz Singer. June Christy and Anita O'Day followed in No. 2 and 3 order.

The biggest vote of all in the poll was racked up by the exciting Lambert-Hendricks-Ross Trio, who in less than two years have had a meteoric rise in the world of jazz. Last year the Lambert-Hendricks-Ross group finished in third place in The Billboard jazz jockey poll. In second place behind the L-H-R Trio this year were The Hi-Lo's, and in third place The Four Freshmen, last year's winning vocal group.

Most Promising: Henderson, Montgomery, Evans, A. Ross

Two Riverside artists, pianist Bill Evans and guitarist Wes Montgomery, won The Billboard’s 1960 “Most Promising” Jazz Instrumentalist Poll, as chosen by jazz a&r. men (limited to diskjockeys that release only jazz records or a substantial quantity of jazz records every month) and the country’s top jazz critics.

On the vocal side, Bill Henderson, of Veejay Records, and Annie Ross, of Columbia Records, won the “Most Promising” Jazz Singer’s Poll. Bill Evans polled three times as many votes as his nearest competitor, pianist Ray Bryant. (Bryant, in addition to his growing recognition in the jazz field, recently had a pop hit going for him with his waxing of “Madison Time.”)

Wes Montgomery won out for his guitar work over the highly publicized Ornette Coleman on alto and John Coltrane on tenor, both of Atlantic, who tied for second place.

Bill Henderson easily outpaced Jon Hendricks among the vocalists, altho Hendricks has had only a few LP’s released featuring him as a single, since most of his warbling these days is as a member of the Lambert-Hendricks-Ross vocal group. Annie Ross, another member of the Lambert Hendricks-Ross Trio, came in first as a soloist in the “most promising” fem singer poll, due to her many solo outings on Contemporary Records. Ernestine Anderson, Mercury Records’ jazz thrush, was a close second.

HOW TO USE THIS FEATURE

JUKE BOX OPERATORS, in view of the increasing number of stereo juke boxes, will be especially interested in listings of available stereo singles and EP's in the record data column. Also, operators may profit handsomely when an artist is particularly hot by programming, not only his current big record, but also the same artist's earlier hit or standards. This info, too, is in the record data column.

DISK JOCKEYS will find that the information in this complete easy-to-use directory can be integrated with nearly every spin. The wealth of chatter in the brief biographical summaries is presented here alphabetically by artist for easy reference. And many fine programming ideas can be developed from the record info data.

BUYERS AND BOOKERS OF TALENT will need no diagrams to tell them how valuable this compilation is, or how to use it. They have continuously requested biographical data as well as for the personal managers and booking offices or leading talent. This feature should answer these requests.
A practical programming guide for disk jockeys and juke box operators, featuring biogs and basic record data on all recording artists whose records appeared on The Hot 100 or Top LP Charts (excluding Christmas albums) from December, 1959, thru February, 1960, plus any million-seller artist who had a singles release during the same period.

THE BILLBOARD, JUNE 27, 1960

SUMMER SPOTLIGHT ON RECORD PROGRAMMING 60
VARIETY
Although she's been away from the album scene for some time, Fran Warren still has plenty on the vocal ball. Not only does she know how to get the most out of lyric values, but she also knows how to use arrangements to bring color and life to a songbag. Of course, the composers she's chosen to work with (Leonard Bernstein, Vernon Duke, George Gershwin, David Rose, Arthur Schwartz and Alec Wilder) are points in her favor, but she gets an added fillip from the fresh and interesting arrangements supplied by Ralph Burns and Al Cohn. It's all done with taste, pace and punch and should develop into a good programing and selling item.

CASH BOX
The legit songstress takes hold of superior songs and tosses them off with professional poise. Ralph Burns' and Al Cohn's jazz-tinged arrangements are in complete accord with Miss Warren's vocal ideas, making for a perfect disk marriage. Witness the effectiveness "What Is There To Say," "Lonely Town," "Soon" and "For You, For Me, For Evermore." Class package.

THE BILLBOARD
★★★★ — VERY STRONG SALES POTENTIAL
Miss Warren, an old hand at a ballad, shows she still has that feeling in this group of excellent choices of tunes by Bernstein, Gershwin, Vernon Duke, David Rose, Arthur Schwartz and Alec Wilder. The superior arrangements, which are big but do not clutter things up, are by Ralph Burns and Al Cohn. A nice blend of artist, instrumentation and repertoire.

MUSIC REPORTER
Here is pop at its topmost perfection. To make doubly sure of having tried and sure material, they took twelve songs by America's foremost melody creators and set those superlative arrangers—Ralph Burns and Al Cohn—to fitting the cadences to the supreme artistry of Fran Warren's voice and handling. Warwick's proxy, Morty Craft, was an exacting judge of the proceedings and the result is a musical pot of gold for listener, programmer and dealer.

MUSIC VENDER
Songstress Fran Warren warbles a tuneful twelve cuts on this outing, including two songs each by six of America's greatest composers: Leonard Bernstein, Vernon Duke, George Gershwin, David Rose, Arthur Schwartz and Alec Wilder. Fran does an outstanding job on selections like "What Is There To Say?," "For You, For Me, For Evermore" and "I Like The Likes Of You." The gal should do something big a la sales with this LP.
