DISTRIBUTOR

OPERATOR

A BASIS OF RECOGNITION
"The Coin Machines Merry-Go-Round"

A BASIS FOR RECOGNIZING BONAFIDE OPERATORS

by Bill Gersh

More than a year ago The Cash Box conducted a very extensive survey among the members of the trade in an attempt to find a standard to act as a basis for recognition of the various divisions of the industry.

For some years there has been open controversy among jobbers and distributors regarding who was, and who was not, to be considered a jobber or a distributor. The same was, and is, true in the case of the operators.

It is now extremely interesting to note that, as the post-war era zooms into being, the members of the trade suddenly realize the great importance of being recognized by other members, either as bonafide operators, jobbers or distributors.

Today, wherever coinmen gather, there is discussion as to who is, and who is not, to be considered an operator, jobber or distributor. And also — how this recognition is to be made effective. So that all three branches of the merchandising division of the industry will be most completely protected.

The operators now realize that something must be done, and done quickly, so that they will be assured of continued good and unhindered operating in the territories where they have given so much of their efforts and energies during this past extremely hectic war period. They certainly don't want to lose what they suffered for and worked so hard to maintain, during a time when things looked blacker than black for all this industry.

Therefore, many leading coinmen have come to the conclusion that there must be some method arranged whereby the industry would be able to clearly and definitely state, "This man is a recognized operator". Or, "This man is a recognized jobber", and likewise be able to designate the recognized distributors.

Operators once again fear complete re-occurrence of what they formerly had to contend with in their territories. They feel that the eagerness now shown by distributors and jobbers to once again get into sales action may mean that some of them will be location-crippled in their territories by the introduction of too much new blood. And, perhaps, too many direct-to-location sales.

They have had to go thru this once before. They have also had to endure the sting of direct sales to many of their locations by certain irresponsible individuals who cared little whether the machine was ordered by a storekeeper or a bonafide operator. They have fought this for years. They now feel that the time has come when this industry has grown up sufficiently to put a stop to such practices.

During the war period only few such sales occurred on a comparative basis. Where they did occur, they were quickly stifled. Repairs, supplies and parts were much too difficult for the average storekeeper to obtain. Therefore, even tho some store keepers did buy machines, most of these went out of order in a very short period of time. The result was that the local operator was then able to come back into the spot stronger than ever.

Now he realizes that with the return of normalcy not only can these storekeepers start ordering direct once more but that a certain few indiscriminate wholesalers in the trade will be more than happy to sell to them. The storekeeper can, and will, be able to follow up his purchase by also obtaining parts and even repairs from these same sources to keep him in business with his one machine.

Yet even this is not the most serious part of what the operators are complaining of at this time. Most important to them is to first somehow ascertain a method for recognizing who is, and who is not, an operator. Once this has been accomplished, they feel, they will be able to go ahead with greater assurance that they will have a chance to remain in business and to offset direct sales.
"The Coin Machines Merry-Go-Round"

Most operator complaints have been to the effect that there are jobbers and distributors so anxious and so eager to sell their merchandise, that they will sell even just one machine to a newcomer. In addition, they will actually give this single machine buyer credit or time to pay for the machine. In many cases operators have proved that the single machine buyer, especially if miles away from the wholesaler, is usually a storekeeper.

The jobber and distributor argue that this is not necessarily the case. They find, many times, that the man who purchases this one machine to start with—will eventually become one of the best and largest of their customers, and a truly respected operator. They feel that should they kowtow to the operators’ whim, regarding single sales, that this will actually be holding back the progress of the industry.

The operator, in turn, declares that it certainly is not his purpose to hold back the future growth and development of the industry. He realizes that with more operators in the trade, manufacturers can sell more. And therefore with a greater sales volume in prospect, the manufacturer can reduce prices in most instances, making it a much better business for the established operators.

The operators realize that progress must go on, regardless of what a few may believe concerning keeping a list of men in each territory as the recognized operators in that territory. They believe, instead, that the jobbers and distributors have twisted their arguments to suit themselves.

They claim that the average jobber and distributor already knows who the recognized and bonafide operators are in his territory. That these men, when they sell to anyone but the already established operators whom they know, realize that they are stepping out of bounds. But, the operators state, this is fair in certain cases, especially where operators may not be giving certain distributors proper support.

They realize, too, that the distributor cannot afford to hold his machines in storage and wait until some recognized operator walks in and decides to buy. There is usually a quota set for each distributor and it is his business to sell that quota, usually in an allotted time. He must, therefore, push for sales.

The operators claim that they realize all this. They accept it as part of the merchandising practice of the industry. What they do ask of the jobber and distributor is that these men arrange for a certain volume method of sales so that the men who purchase in that volume will be considered operators.

Many operators have advanced the following suggestion. The best means for ascertaining the amount that the average recognized operator should purchase of any new number is a minimum of five units. In short, then, the present operator feels that a man is only to be considered an operator when he enters into this business and purchases at least five units to start with, and five unit lots thereafter.

The operators feel that this will eliminate the great majority of direct sales to storekeepers, whether knowingly or unknowingly sold by wholesalers in this business. They claim, from past experience, they have found that the storekeeper will never purchase in lots of five machines. He wants usually but one machine, they state, and holds onto that machine for years, blocking off a location to a bonafide operator. At the same time causing loss of future business for this location to the wholesalers.

Leaders in the field, who have discussed this request on the part of the operators thruout the country, do not believe it too difficult to fulfill by any distributor or jobber. They believe, instead, that this is a very fair minimum sales figure, and that the trade should abide by it.

The average operator is right in his contention that many times, and it may be without any knowledge, sales will come from far away cities into his territory. Usually such sales are of but one machine. And in almost every case, these sales are direct to locations.

If these men, the long distance sellers, would abide by the decision to sell five machines at one time, then the trade would at last reach that point where the beginnings for a basis of recognition could be established.

It certainly is not asking too much from the jobber to carefully check the men who are eager to now enter the field. Millions who are losing war plant jobs are turning to other pursuits. A large number are going into small businesses for themselves. From among these, who seek a business of their own, will be some who will want to enter this field.

A certain portion from among these prospects will probably prove good, upstanding and progressive operators. Some of these may even prove to be the future leaders of this trade. But to protect the operator, who worked so hard to help continue this industry during the war period, and therefore created a strong and solid nucleus upon which the wholesalers in this business can now build for tomorrow, he feels that these new men should be sold only in minimum lots of five machines. And that this should be declared as the method for ascertaining and establishing a man as a bonafide operator.
“The Coin Machines Merry-Go-Round”

The operator realizes that he is going to be hurt. He also realizes that he will have to fight harder than ever before to maintain his present locations. He knows that the competition which is entering the field will not be just satisfied with whatever spots are lying around empty. They, too, have acquaintances and they, too, want some of the top spots in the community.

The operator is willing to enter into this battle for survival from competition. He knows that competition will help to engender better business and open more locations in the long run. But he wants clean, open and wholesome competition. He doesn’t want to find his storekeepers buying machines direct and force him into a loss of locations by a method which is entirely unfair from all standpoints, as well as against all the tenets of good business practise.

The operator also believes that he will have much to be wary about when some of the new machines are introduced. He knows that not every new machine can be a “bit” number. There must be some bad ones, too. He hopes that he won’t have to be the one who will be saddled with these bad machines. Yet this does not deter him from adopting the policy of purchasing in minimum lots of five machines. He still feels that the average operator can purchase in such quantity and still protect himself from too great loss.

In short, the operator is anxious to work out some method which will be acceptable to all in the industry. He feels that the men who worked hard, and persevered, and helped keep the backbone of this industry strong, should not be lightly tossed aside simply because the new machines must be sold.

The operator, as well as the jobber and distributor, realizes that no great rush of new blood will come about within the next six months, or possibly even the next 18 months. He knows that whatever the manufacturer can produce will be gobbled up by hungry operators all over the country.

What he is worried about is what effect these immediate and continued sales will have, after the first flush of business is over, and the trade again settles down to careful purchasing. Then, he believes, is when wholesalers will suddenly once again shoot out to right, left, back and front to get business, regardless from whom this business comes.

Then will be the time, he feels, when he will need protection. And he therefore believes that the method for ascertaining who is, and who is not, an operator should be arranged for now, before this period comes upon the trade.

The operator does not overlook the fact that the average manufacturer more or less takes care of indiscriminate, out of territory selling. He knows that the manufacturer doesn’t want one of his distributors selling into another’s territory. He also knows that the manufacturer can, if jobbers do such selling, stop his distributor from selling to such jobbers. But, he explains, this was also the case in the pre-war period. Yet such sales went on openly and in larger and larger numbers until the war called a halt.

The entire problem resolves itself down to one basic fact. By the jobbers and distributors knowing the operators in their territories, and these operators agreeing that they will only purchase in lots of five each, and the jobbers and distributors arranging to sell new blood in such quantities, too, they have come to the beginning of a basis for recognizing who is, and who is not, a bona fide coinman.

It is now up to the operators, jobbers and distributors in the various territories throughout the nation to get together on this one point. They can work out among themselves a basis for recognition which will probably prove of good value for many years to come.

Those operators, therefore, who are fearful that certain jobbers and distributors may upset the present operating applecart in their territories by promiscuous selling, need but meet with these men and make arrangements for a recognition basis. They must, too, allow these men to sell to newcomers. This field can only grow great when its numbers are such that it will have the power to swing better understanding, respect and legislation for its benefit.

Operators must remember that they cannot, and do not want to, forestall progress. Instead, the intelligent operator will work to assure the trade greater and better growth. And help bring to it the kind of men who will work with him to make this a greater and better industry for all concerned.

The operator has the beginning for a grand and great era in his demand that the industry recognize the difference between an operator sale and a sale of a single machine. By keeping machines away from direct purchase by storekeepers he will have definitely won a great point for his own future security.

The jobbers and distributors, at least those whom The Cash Box has contacted in this matter, seem to all agree that there should be arrangements made so that bona fide operators will be recognized by all the industry. Many have even suggested that a list, with a serial number for each operator be kept here in the offices of The Cash Box, and that a special card be issued to each operator which could be checked with The Cash Box at any time the wholesaler may so desire.

In short, both sides are willing. Why not, then, talk it over?
NEW YORK—Operators of music machines are aware of the possibilities of opening many new outlets for their music equipment. During the past war years, industrial plants were developed to a high degree, and operators found these locations very profitable. With the music machine operation still in its infancy, music men are scanning every possible spot for the installation of their equipment.

The Associated Press, in a story released from New York City, features a conference of doctors and musicians, just concluded, in which they studied the effect of music on the human being. After a three week conference, Dr. Samuel T. Burns, chairman of the musical education department of New York University, announced a dual inquiry will be undertaken immediately.

This is perhaps the most ambitious attempt to evaluate the potentialities of music to date.

The effect of music upon the emotions was known in Biblical days. However, it wasn't until 1890, as Roy Underwood, head of the music department of Michigan State College, pointed out in the magazine of Music, that scientific research into the influence of music upon the human organism was initiated.

"During the next 20 years," Underwood wrote, "the following effects were definitely proved: Music increases or decreases muscular energy; music increases bodily metabolism; Music produces a marked effect on pulse and blood pressure; increase in cerebral circulation occurs under the influence of even simple music; music produces decided changes in respiration, influences the internal secretions, and lowers the threshold of sensory perception." (That is to say you feel, hear, taste, smell more sharply.)

These findings have provided a springboard for the application of music in a number of fields: to increase the productive capacities of employees in industrial plants; to aid digestion in restaurants; and it has been applied with some success in education of mentally deficient children.

Many psychiatrists have studied the value of music as a therapeutic agent. Dr. Ira M. Altschuler of Eloise Hospital in Michigan has shown that music is 35 percent more effective in calming patients than any of the standard methods, such as wet sheet wrap, ice packs, etc. Many institutions, private and public, have demonstrated various uses of music in treatment of patients.

Music has been found effective in treating organic ills and pains. It has been found useful in operating rooms and dental offices to relieve nervous tension of patients.

Now, with the return of wounded service men to the country, a scientific study of music for the benefit of all is being seriously instituted.

The results of this study will be interesting to coinmen, who in the past have shown great initiative in placing phonographs in a variety of locations. The study may bring into the open various other types of locations for music machines.

(Reprints of the above article are available for the operator who may wish to call the attention of certain locations to the value of installing music equipment—write us how many you desire.)

Canadian Music Ops Enjoy Perfect Record Situation

TORONTO, CAN.—Altho the record situation here the United States has been exceptionally bad, and from reports keeps getting worse, the Canadian ops evidently haven't been affected one bit.

Al Siegel, of Al Siegel Amusement Co., Toronto, Canada writes, "I am amazed from reading your editorials about the record situation in the States, as Canadian operators have been very fortunate. We are supplied by three major record companies, R.C.A. Victor, Decca and Columbia. I can truthfully say that they have been very cooperative to the operators here, and in many cases, they would give us the preference on new releases. As far as the price goes, we pay the same now as we did before the war."

"Some time ago," continues Siegel, "I imported a few records from the United States, and frankly, they don't stand up nearly as well as our own records do here. By that statement I mean we would get more plays per record than the American operator. In closing I would like to say that the American operator has my deepest sympathies, and I hope The Cash Box is able to help them get the proper type of record at the proper price."

CINCINNATI, O. — Bill Hardig, sales manager for Esquire Manufacturing Co., this city, announces that they have taken over all the property and equipment from Joe Westerhaus, of Westerhaus Manufacturing Co. (revampers of games).

Esquire, manufacturers of "Jolly" products, are now in the process of extensive improvements in all departments, making additions and renovations in order to double the present capacity.

Hardig informs us that Esquire Manufacturing Co. will continue to offer Westerhaus' conversions to the trade.

Trade's Leaders Optimistic of Future

NEW YORK—The consensus of opinion of the trade's leaders is that all in the industry can feel completely confident and most optimistic of the future.

Many believe that regardless of the probable unsettled market conditions which may come about due to the introduction of new equipment, the trade will be helped generally and will react toward improving business conditions, as well as paving the way for greater profits in the long run.

These men look forward to many changes, but all believe that these will be for the general betterment of the industry. All are looking toward the coming era as the most prosperous and most fruitful in the history of the coin machine business.

NO SHOW IN 1946

DECISION MADE AT C.M.I. MEETING AT CHI

CHICAGO, Ill. - The Coin Machine Industries, Inc., which is the national association of coin machine manufacturers, met at the Sherman Hotel September 6th for their first meeting since before the war. The membership voted to start the association functioning immediately and made the necessary appropriations.

James Gilmore, the popular secretary-manager was rehired and will resume his duties on October 1st. Six new memberships were received and accepted at this initial meeting. They were: J. H. Keeney & Co.; Watling Manufacturing Co.; Williams Manufacturing Co.; Aircoen Manufacturing Corp.; Bill Frey, Inc.; and Kelmer Venders.

After much serious discussion, the members voted not to hold a convention and exhibition in 1946 due to many adverse conditions and official regulations. However, if the situation clears in the near future, the matter will be brought back to the floor for discussion at some future meeting.

It was announced that the next meeting, which will be held in about one month, will be devoted almost entirely to a publicity relations program.
THRU THE COIN CHUTE

EASTERN FLASHES

Not many visitors in the big city these days, most coimnen rushing off to Chiqago....Bill Rabkin, International Iutooscope Corp. in Chi for the meeting of CMI.......Sid Mittleman and Phil Mason, American Coin Machine Co., Newark, N.J. have some unusual plans which they expect to put into work in a month or so....Dave Lowy, a private in the services of Uncle Sam, returns to the city on a ten day furlough, and then off for overseas duty. Dave lost some 30 pounds, and looks in the very 'pink' of condition.

Barney (Shugy) Sugarman, Runyon Sales Co., Newark, N.J. rushes his young son to the hospital for an emergency appendectomy. Reports at the end of the week find the boy doing fine....Charley Aronson and Bill Alberg, Supreme Enterprises, Inc., Brooklyn, N.Y. will be in Chicago when this issue appears.....The Raveley boys of Boston, Mass. worried over the condition of their mother, who is quite ill.....Nat Cohn, Modern Music Sales Co. appointed exclusive distributor for the Eastern territory for the new Jewel records. Nat, by the way, has just okay'd the blue prints for the complete re-building of his quarters, to be ready when that phone comes along.

Harry Pearcy, East Coast Distributing Co., Elizabeth, N.J. returns from his vacation, and is now ready to get into some fast action with his associates, Dave Stern, Tom Burke and Everett Masterson.....Milky Green, American Vending Co., Brooklyn, N.Y. and Miami, Fla. expects to announce a factory connection very soon.....Charlie Katz and Leon Berman, Metro Distributing Co. still out of town, an air of mystery prevails.....Herman Perin, Runyon Sales Co., Newark, N.J. deeply grieved by the death of his sister this past week.

Jack Fitzgibbons, Jaffco, Inc. manufacturing the Universal Amplifiers once again, and added to the great demands for his barrel roll axle alley. Fitz is kept continuously on the go. Jack, by the way, expects to visit Chicago very shortly.....M. L. Colbert, Nebraska City, Neb. complains bitterly about the record companies, and is pessimistic over the efforts to correct this bad situation.....Ed Raveley, Associated Amusements, Boston, Mass. readying a tremendous party to take place when he is installed as Master in the Masonic Lodge.....Mike Humes, always one of the most popular coimnen in the country, elevated still further by his pals, Phil Gould, Ed Raveley and Charley Wertheimer, who have been closely associated with him the past two weeks.

TWIN CITIES

Amos Heilecher, North Star Novelty Company moves into its large quarters located at 8 N. Third St....Benny Daniels, who went to California recently on a vacation, hasn't returned yet. Evidently he's so in love with the country, he's forgotten all about ol' Minneapolis.....My Greenstein, Hy-G Amusement Co. take off a few days, and goes up to Alexandria for a rest.....Mr. & Mrs. Harold Scott of Wobridge, S.D. were in town the last few days taking it easy and doing some buying. Mr. Scott reports biz to be excellent, and with his radio shop, plus helping other ops with their repairs, he's kept quite busy.

Jack Lowrie of Wabasha, Minn. is busier than a bumblebee - what with his routes, airplanes and other enterprises.....Harold Lieberman of Acme Novelty Co. is back on the job after being out for a few days.....I. F. LaFleur of Devilia Lake, N.D. visits his relatives, and comes into Hy-G Amusement to do some buying.....Mr. & Mrs. F. C. Norberg of Mankato, Minn. spend the holidays in town doing the night spots.....Clyde Newall of Mayflower Dist. Co. seen in Grand Forks, N.D. on business.....Bob McDowean claims fishing has proven a cure for his hay fever - so he spent practically the whole summer fishing all over the state. What an alibi.....Harry Lerner, local operator, returns to the city after a very fine trip to Winnipeg.

Mr. Julius Direks of Marshall spends a few weeks in Shakopee, taking mud baths for his rheumatism.....Sid Leveno, former employee of Hy-G Amusement, and now in the Medical Corps stationed in England, is expecting to be shipped back to the states within the next 2 months. Sid visited France and Germany after V-E Day, and claims the French girls are not so hot - who's he kiddin'?
WANT STANDARDIZED PIN GAME PARTS

Indiana, Ind. — Continuing the strong argument that many parts for games be standardized, suggested by The Cash Box some months ago, C. E. Armstrong of Business Stimulation, Indianapolis, Ind., writes: "Now is the proper time for a committee of distributors to contact all pin ball manufacturers regarding new pin ball machines being standardized in many ways (legs, cash boxes, units, glass) in fact any and all items that can be standardized.

"It would be real nice to be able to replace a glass in a pin ball game without having to get the right size out of the five or six different ones now used. This is the first and possibly the last chance to work on the manufacturers along this line. It's really important to all parties concerned, distributors as well as operators. Why not settle this matter before the factories go into production now."

SUGGEST CHEAT-PROOF PIN GAMES

Louisville, Ky. — Lou Bossberg of New Orleans Novelty Co., New Orleans, La., who has just been honorably released from the Navy, and is back on the job anticipating great things for the future of the coin machine business, writes: "The coin machine operators accept a lot of things that persons in other businesses would never stand for. For instance, pin game operators have been robbed continuously of a large share of their collections by unscrupulous persons cheating their games. The most common way of cheating a pin ball game is by manipulating a wire either through the coin chute or by boring a hole through the cabinet and the insertion of said wire."

"We sincerely hope", continues Lou "that the coin chute manufacturers will keep step with the 'March of Progress' in this new 'autopian post-war world' and give us a coin chute which cannot be cheated in any way. It is utterly ridiculous to pay two hundred and three hundred dollars for pin games and use a $1.50 coin chute which is an open door for the game to be fitted. It will be a happy day in our life when we can get a cheat proof coin chute and our games will have armour plating and other cheat proof devices as part of their standard equipment."

MUSIC CHANGES REQUESTED

New Castle, Pa. — Operating music machines, and naturally not aware of what the phonographs now being prepared for the market are like, De Lou V. Burnsise of The Peerless Specialty Co., New Castle, Pa., makes the following suggestions to the manufacturers:

1. Have all manufacturers make one amplifier and one tone arm to fit all phonographs.
2. Put extra good looks on all bell boxes and not to have them on the bottom of the box.
3. Simplify and improve the coin mechanism by using three nickel slides instead of the prevailing nickel, dime and quarter. And for the record manufacturer, Burnsise, like all music operators, wants "good popular music on both sides of the record."

CANADIAN EXPORT SPONSORED

Ottawa, Canada — Prompt enactment of Administration sponsored legislation to double or triple existing Canadian export credit authorizations is expected after the Parliament opens this week.

Canada is counting upon exports to a great degree to maintain reasonably full employment. These expanded and additional credit facilities will be used to finance exports to The United Kingdom and other European and Asiatic countries. Canada is reportedly prepared to provide broad financial assistance. Probably $2,000,000,000, all told will be extended over the next two or three years, which is considerably larger than pre-war exports. It is reported that large export credits will be provided to promote Canadian trade.

CMI BLUE BOOK DETACHABLE?

New York — A suggestion by one of The Cash Box subscribers reads: "Because we use the CMI Blue Book of The Cash Box continually as a basis for prices in used equipment, we believe it would be most desirable to have this section so that it can be easily detached from the magazine without mutilating the latter. Our suggestion is that the pages of this section be perforated along the edges, thus facilitating the removal, so that this very valuable CMI Blue Book may be carried in our pockets for ready reference."
Syracuse, N.Y.

Al Wertheimer of Davis Sales Co., still at the Tulsa School of Aeronautics, Tulsa, Okla., where he is a flight instructor in the AAF — but Al is expected to return home some time in October. Finley Hubbard, well known music op of Binghamton, N.Y., also a flight instructor with the AAF in Tulsa, Okla. For the past three years, is killed just this past week when his plane crashed while on an instruction flight. Frank Curry, former sales manager for Davis Sales Co., now has the Columbia Music Co., here and is considered one of the city's leading phone ops.

Russ Stitt of Russell Sound Systems is still rated among the leading music ops in town...Angelo Delaport of Rex Amusement Co., on his way to Chicago where he will discuss delivery of new machines with manufacturers he will represent here...By the way, when Paul Davis sold his route it was divided into 24 parts, with as many operators buying in — the largest purchaser buying 35 pieces....One of the most outstanding women in the coin biz is Mrs. Snyder of Rex Amusement. Knows the business from A to Z and back again, and in addition one of the most friendly people you'll ever meet....This city still hasn't issued any phone licenses and the music men continue happy over this fact....However, with amusement games — that's a different story — there's a $25. per year location tax, which is in addition to the $51. per year game tax. In short, for every machine placed on location, the first license cost is $65. per year and $51. per year per license for each and every game after the first placed on the same location.

Rufus White is still going strong on slots, one-balls, and consoles, operating mostly in Pennsylvania....Ray Daggett, sales manager at Rex Amusement, well liked by Syracuse columnists....Len Elmer, Hickock Amusement Co., is working at one of the large war plants in Cleveland, is lucky to have his Unoc handle his route for him while he's away....Terry Sullivan is reported to be spending most of his time at the Pamion Club....Tom Singleton, who retired from the coin biz, sold out to Fred Stott and Anthony Trigale, who are now doing business as the American Amusement Company here....Mr. Fairchild, one of the really old timers in the biz is reported to be in very poor health.

Lowell ace, who just came back from Uncle Sam's Navy is once again operating here — and very happy about it all...Nick Christello of C & C Phone Co., Auburn, N.Y., who is still in the Marines, has Frank Cosimo planning his route for him....Mr. and Mrs. Bob Charles of Binghamton, N.Y., who is seen in town this past week with 8 photo-proofs of their baby and debuting which is the best for reproduction to send to all their friends....By Rosen, who hales from Deposit, N.Y., now in the music biz in Binghamton, and likes it plenty....His brother, Sol Rosen, former Binghamton op has just received his honorable discharge, but is still taking it easy....Jack Driscoll of Avon, N.Y., just sold off his route and all his machines — entering the Armed services....Cliff Reillie of Rex is reported to have lost that "FGO struts" (Chief Petty Officer) just a week or two ago due to the flood of orders he simply couldn't fill. And remember too, that Cliff was a sailor in the first world war, so losing that strut wasn't really easy....Just returned from the Army, and back working at Rex are: Dave Lee, Norman Rothchild and Fern Bollinger....All Syracuse is looking forward to those new machines from Chicago's factories.

Rochester, N.Y.

Fred Iverson and Johnny Billotta of Eastern Sales Company take a run down to Syracuse to visit around with the trade. Eastern is reported to be pretty well set for post-war.....Howard Fos, Valley Specialty Co., who represents Mills Novelty Co., visiting in Chicago this past week with Vince Shy and some of the other boys at Mills....Jack Porto, Atlas Phonograph Co., working very hard....Marty Levine of A-1 Amusement considered the largest phone op in town and always busy.....Ben Wolenits of Gen Amusement can always be found at his big arcade right in the heart of town. Jerry Kertman (the mighty mite of Rochester) reported to have a route of about 100 pieces, mostly music, up for sale. Jerry has a very fine building for his American Distributing Co., and is getting all set to leave for Chicago to tell the manufacturers all about it....Sam Goldbert, who has just been honorably discharged from the army, and Frank Crumale, who has just come out of a war plant, now hard at work for Jerry Kertman. By the way, Jerry Kertman is spending his honeymoon in Canada — yeh, someone finally grabbed him...

No license on phones in Rochester. There is a $5.00 location tax on amusement machines and $64.00 license per year required for the first machine. In short, it's $61.00 per year for the first machine placed on location and $6.00 per year license for each machine thereafter. . . . Charley Whitman, local op, up in Canada enjoying a nice vacation according to reports . . . . He, & Dennison, also one of the noted Rochester ops, can't stop talking about the new baby at the Colonel opp. . . . Morris J. Carr, who is one of Rochester's best known former ops, honorably discharged from the Marines, grabbed himself a wife, and is back operating again - and loves it . . . . Carl Rapp, Globe Amusement Co., hustling all around the town at all times.

Yale Levine, local op, is waiting, patiently awaiting the new machines, and claims he will expand his route over 800% when they come to town . . . . Leo Sharpstein, Main Amusement Co., going into music in a big way when the equipment comes along . . . . The record situation here is very promising. They claim they cannot get any records to fill even 10% of their requirements. Yet, leading retail stores in this town, they report, have plenty of records, or at least give the impression that they do. The boys claim that they have to buy records from all over the country and pay retail prices in addition to the freight charges. The music men in Rochester will back 100% a trade meet with the leading record manufacturers to get an equitable share of record production.

BUFFALO, N.Y.

S. H. (Si) Redd of Redd Distributing Co., Boston, Mass., Wurlitzer distributor, has just taken over the Mayflower Distributing Co. here. By Singer, well known manager of this office, continues on in his present capacity. Redd also took over Wurlitzer distribution in Albany, N.Y., obtaining the office from Emby Distributing Co. of New York City. This gives Si Redd complete upstate New York distributor, in addition to the New England territory he now has . . . . Ben Kulick, whose firm is now called Faysan Distributing Co., distributor for Admiral radio, television and refrigerators, has returned to the music machine biz in earnest by purchasing one of the largest music routes in these parts . . . . Paul Peacock, one of the most outstanding music ops in this area, is also known as "the Mayor of Lackawanna" . . . . Earl Snyder of Empire Vending Co., one of the largest cig and phone coinmen in this area, is reported to have joined forces with A. Broderick, also of this city.

Jim O'Neill is reported to have dominion over all the best colored spots in town . . . . Jim Voelker reports that he is continuing to expand his route every week. . . . Al Bergman of Royal Amusement Co., reported to have just made a clean-up buy on music parts. Looks like Al is preparing for a hard winter . . . . Dave Oliver, Champion coffee drinker of Buffalo, buying more and more phonos each day . . . . Harry Kertman of American Distributing Co., Rochester, combining some business with his honeymoon, drops into town . . . . Joe and Ed Pouthier, the buying equipment to fill their needs, report they are waiting for the new machines to arrive . . . . Herbie Ross reports that his new arcade at Main St., near Tupper is going great guns . . . . Ernie Petersing of Niagara Amusement Co., N. Tonawanda, doing a grand job with his music route. . . . Dave Friedman of Brooklyn and Murray Sandow of New York are reported to be going to town with their arcades at 10 West Chippewas St. . . . Earl Schultz of Redd Distributing Co., Boston, vacationing here.

Low Wolf continues to be one of the busiest men in town. Low suggests that every factory serial number their new machines from now on so that the trade will have a complete record of each and every unit produced. . . . J. H. Winfield, one of the leading distributors, here completely prepared for post-war . . . . Herman Paster of Mayflower, St. Paul in town visiting around . . . . Henry Silz, American Coin Machine Co., Buffalo, is expanding his route . . . . Bernie Blacher bought himself a partnership in a restaurant (just to get the spot, some of the boys claim) and now is trying to figure out how to serve a steak and a tune together - automatically . . . . Peter Butera of No. Tonawanda has decided to get out of the furniture biz and stick to music exclusively . . . . Joe "Cash and Carry" Edelman is considered one of the best buyers in town. Joe got that moniker by paying cash for everything he buys.

No local phone license in Buffalo, but there is a $15.00 per year license per pin game, which is issued to the operator so that he can move the license as he moves the game from location to location . . . . Walt Moran seen at Low Wolf's this past week looking for more music and one-balls . . . . Ernie Borne, local op, back from his summer vacation and ready for everything the post-war era may bring.

NEW ORLEANS

George Satterlee back from his vacation looking more handsome than before, if possible (consensus of opinion of the New Orleans Belles)....Bob Adams received a warm welcome home from the Army this week in Memphis, Tenn. where he took over the management of Decca's branch office.....C. E. Sherrill in town from Hattiesburg, Miss., treats Joseph Villars to a de-o-licious lunch at Maylee's, where one can almost always find somebody connected with the coin biz dining...

R. L. Sims, Op from Alexandria, alling.....Ben J. Shear soon leaves for Port Arthur, Tex. and then on to Chicago for some very hard work.....Don Franklin, former prominent local op, visits with Joe Villars at P.A.B. to talk over old times. Don is now a crack flier with Chicago & Southern Airlines.....The new Wurlitzer stickers being pasted onto automobile windows are making quite a hit with ops around town.....Senorita Sally Adams leaves for a three weeks tour of Mexico.

ODT ENDS MOST TRAVEL BANS

WASHINGTON, D.C. - All major restrictions on railroad passenger travel, except the ban on short-haul sleeper service (450 miles or less), will be eliminated by Sept. 16, the Office of Defense Transportation announced this week.

At the same time, all restrictions on the operation by the railroads of special passenger trains, special cars and extra sections will be cancelled.

Space reservations, including sleeping car accommodations, can be made fourteen days in advance, beginning Sept. 9, instead of the present 5 day limit.

While the elimination of the restrictions noted above, and the possibility of all restrictions being eliminated very shortly, the trade cannot look forward to a return to pre-war service. A spokesman for the New York Central claimed that the removal of these restrictions will be of great benefit, but many handicaps will remain until equipment, especially sleeping cars, now in Army service, are returned to civilian use. He pointed out that 65% of their sleeping cars had been turned over to the armed services.

FOREWORD

Many times, wide differences appear in the high and low prices of certain equipment. Like any true reporter The C.M.I. Blue Book can only feature the market prices as they are quoted. The C.M.I. Blue Book acts exactly the same as the market quotation board at the Stock Exchange—posting the prices exactly as they are quoted for the past week, regardless of how much they may seem to be out of line. Some machine prices do not change for months. The C.M.I. Blue Book, rather than show no price, retains the last known quotations for such equipment so that the subscriber at least has the last known quoted prices as a basis to work with. Prices continue to be very widely divergent these days. Someone on the West Coast may feel a certain machine worth $150.00 whereas someone on the East Coast may think it worth but $75.00. Of course, condition, serial, appearance, demand, territory, quantity, etc., must all be taken into consideration. The C.M.I. Blue Book reports each quotation exactly as it is made and depend on the subscriber to make average price adjustment to fit the peculiarities of his own territory.

METHOD

The C.M.I. Blue Book is to be read as follows: First price listed is lowest price for the week; Second price listed is highest price for the past week. Where only one price appears this should be considered lowest price.

CODE

CHECK THIS CODE CAREFULLY. BECOME ACQUAINTED WITH EACH ONE OF THE CODE NUMBERS AND WHAT THEY SIGNIFY. THESE CODE NUMBERS APPEAR IN FRONT OF THE NAME OF EACH MACHINE.

1. MEANS PRICE WENT UP.
2. MEANS PRICE WENT DOWN.
3. MEANS MACHINE JUST ADDED TO LIST.
4. MEANS PRICES WENT UP AND DOWN DURING THE PAST WEEK
5. MEANS PRICES REMAINED SAME AS IN LAST PRICE LISTS.
6. MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR PAST TWO WEEKS
7. MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR PAST THREE WEEKS

XX — MEANS NO PRICES QUOTED FOR MANY WEEKS—PRICE SHOWN IS LAST KNOWN QUOTATION.

IMPORTANT

Machines underlined mean these were most active in trading the past week.

THUNDERBOLT
SENSATIONAL NEW AIRPLANE SHOOTING GAME
NEW — DIFFERENT — FOR YOUR ARCADE TAKES IN MORE NICKELS THAN 3 OTHER GAMES COMBINED

Player actually has the sensation of flying a fighter plane. He grips a RUDDER STICK with his hand, sights the moving enemy planes, and then presses the MACHINE GUN BUTTON on the RUDDER STICK — scoring hits.

Machine Guns in the wings of the plane flash tracers ... shots rat-tat-tat . . . flak bursts . . . and a bell rings when scoring.

YOU'LL BE GLAD YOU WAITED!

For five years our staff of brilliant engineers have been working on your future...

NOW... it is an acclaimed achievement.

SOON... we will present you the rewards of our research and labor... the supreme Automatic Phonograph.

KEEP YOUR ATTENTION FOCUSED ON THIS PAGE.
Announcing...

PHONOGRAPH

The New Bally Phonograph...with the famous Gabel mechanism* incorporates every advance that engineering skill can produce, insuring top tone quality and trouble-free operation...and ushering in a new era of brilliance and eye-appeal, because nationally famous stylists have produced a line of extravagantly hand-some cabinets for the Bally Phonograph.

The Gabel Mechanism, built into the Bally Phonograph, is a new improved model...the result of forty-two years of Gabel experience in the production of successful phonographs. To Gabel engineering, Bally engineers have added their contributions gained through long experience in coin-operated devices and their wartime experience in precision production which has won a three-star Army-Navy "E" Flag for the Bally plant.

Completely Engineered and ready for production, the Bally Phonograph will start rolling out of Bally's huge new plant in the immediate future, just as quickly as materials are available.

Display Date will be announced soon. Watch for news of the Bally Phonograph in an early issue of this publication. Better still...write today asking for complete details on the great new Bally Phonograph.

*Exclusively licensed to the Manufacturing Corporation by the John Gabel Manufacturing Company.

The John Gabel Manufacturing Company continued to manufacture the Gabel Phonograph for distribution through Gabel distributors. The use of the Gabel mechanism in the Bally Phonograph simply means that greater numbers of operators will be able to make maximum of its recognized simplicity, durability and superior tonal qual- ity of the Gabel mechanism.
