Hopkins, Missouri . . . I want to thank you for the check I received for winning the dog contest which was in the April issue. We sure enjoy Doris Murphy's column in the KMA GUIDE. In fact, we enjoy all of the people at KMA and couldn't get along without the GUIDE. I am also enclosing some recipes which I want to be entered in the recipe contest.

Mrs. C. H. Duffield
(Congratulations again, Mrs. Duffield.)

Panora, Iowa . . . Here is my entry for your "Favorite Recipe Contest". Rather I should say here is part of my entry. One envelope simply would not hold all the recipes. It's a good thing you did not limit me to one favorite recipe. That would never do for I could never decide on just one! Recipes are my hobby and I never will have too many. Your KMA GUIDE recipes and the recipes your homemakers' give on their programs are added to my collection. I'll be anxious for the June GUIDE to arrive.

Mount Ayr, Iowa . . . I wish to enter the recipe contest mentioned in the May KMA GUIDE, so here are two of our favorite recipes. The meat dish is the one my husband's grandmother used. It was in a cook book which was dated 1909. The vegetable recipe is easy to serve and it tastes, "Oh, so good".

JUNE 9 IS KMA FARM FIELD DAY!

A Chat With Edward May

One month ago we were all concerned about the Missouri River floods and the ravaging damages caused by the torrents of water. Finally, the river is now back in its channel. Farmers have displayed the pioneering spirit and have gone back onto the land and are busy planting their crops. In some cases the land can't be worked but it is surprising what a high percentage of the land, which only a few weeks ago was under several feet of water, is today being farmed and will probably produce a good crop.

The flood waters had played some cruel tricks on some farms by depositing piles of sand from one to five feet deep on top of rich midwestern farm land. Fortunately, that's the exception rather than the rule. On other farms, in fact, you can see the wheat still growing on land that had been covered with 10 feet of water for days!

We are happy to report to you flower lovers that this year's flowers are as beautiful as ever. Many thousands of people have visited Shenandoah and saw the acres and acres of peonies when they were in full bloom. At the nursery, peonies put on the first big show of color and the parade of flowers continues until the season ends with the passing of the chrysanthemums in the fall.

We who live away from the big cities are particularly lucky around this time of the year! Instead of having to enjoy the beauty of flowers from a florist's window or a window box we can actually live amidst acres and acres of growing things - flowers, shrubs and trees.

To my way of thinking, there is an unexpressable beauty about a budding flower, nodding its petals toward the sun, that can never be matched by a man-made monument of brick, steel girders and cement.

Speaking of flowers, the above picture shows a magnolia tree which every spring provides a mass effect of beautiful blooms. This particular tree is a magnolia soulangeana and is located in mother's back yard. It is approximately 15 years old and has been given no winter protection during that time. This year the blooms were as large as saucers and I would estimate the tree had a minimum of 1,000 blooms. The occasion of the picture was to celebrate my sister's birthday and helping to celebrate the occasion was my mother, her cousin who lives with her, Edna Buntz, Mrs. E. S. Welch, Frances, J.D., their children Betty Jane and Diane; Eleanor, Annette, Karen and myself.

The Early Bird Gardeners are reporting their activities and several have had a batch or two of peas from their own garden. If you live in the KMA area, notify me by card or letter the first time you pick peas, beans, sweet corn or tomatoes from your garden. If you are the first to report from your county I will send you a nice prize.

Edith Hansen, Haden Family, Prizes Highlight June 6 Homemakers Celebration

All ladies in KMA-Land are invited to be on hand in the KMA Auditorium June 6 for a big "Edith Hansen Day" celebration!

Present in person for the festivities will be Edith and her assistants, Kay Wilkins and Jane Robinson; the "Carl Haden Family" of radio and TV fame; Glenn Harris and his "Penny Auction"; and KMA

Edith Hansen

Homemakers Adella Shoemaker, Bernice Currier, plus other KMA personalities.

In addition to the afternoon program, which will begin at 2 pm, there will be a special morning show beginning at 10 am. The morning show will feature the broadcast of Edith Hansen's "Kitchen Club" direct from the stage of the KMA Auditorium followed by a special program by "The Haden Family".

More than $1000 worth of gifts and prizes will be given away during the afternoon festivities including gifts of Tidy House Products Co. merchandise and premiums to EVERY LADY in attendance!

The event will honor Edith Hansen's 10th Anniversary on KMA. Since she began broadcasting on KMA on June 2, 1942, Edith's program has grown in popularity until now it is heard daily on 53 radio stations all over the United States, sponsored by the Tidy House Products Co., a Shenandoah-born firm for which Edith now does all her broadcasting. Also planning on being on hand for the activities will be the founders of the Tidy House firm, J. C. Rapp, president; and vice-president A. W. Ramsey. The celebration will be a "homecoming" for both men as Mr. Rapp is a former general manager of KMA and Mr. Ramsey was formerly KMA sales manager.

Edith, Kay Wilkins, Jane Robinson, Adella Shoemaker, Bernice Currier, Doris Murphy and others will be on hand most of the day in the lobby of the KMA auditorium to greet the homemaker's day guests.

* * * * *

KMA listeners will remember the Haden Family from their numerous broadcasts over KMA. Carl Haden, Sr. is director, master of ceremonies, announcer, and all-around producer for this talented family. All of the Hadens have grown up behind the microphone. They are undoubtedly one of the greatest family groups in the country.

* * * * *

As there will be a huge crowd for the afternoon program, it is recommended that as many persons as possible try to attend the morning show. For both programs it will be first-come first-serve and we suggest that you plan on arriving as early as possible.

Kay Wilkins

* * * * *

An interesting part of the afternoon program will include some reminiscing about the early days of KMA with such old-timers as Frank Field, Edward May, Bernice Currier, Doris Murphy and others.

Frank Comments

By FRANK FIELD

Yes, little Bill is not so little any more. He celebrated his seventh birthday on May the 7th. This picture was taken just as he was getting ready to blow out the seven candles on the cake.

Since he was going to be seven years old, Bill's mother told him that he could have seven at his birthday party, including himself. If he had been allowed to have his way he would have had seventeen or maybe even seventy, but Elsie thought that seven kids would be about all she could handle. He had a hard time deciding who the six would be, since two out of the six would undoubtedly have to be his cousins, Johnny and Shannon.

Yes, I know there are only six shown in the picture. It just happened that one of the invited guests took down with the measles the morning of the party, after it was too late to invite anyone else. The missing guest was Sharon Douglas, Merle Douglas' little girl, who lives next door. Reading from left to right they are, Larry Pulley, Johnny Fishbaugh, John Hutson, Bill Field, Connie White and Shannon Bellamy. Needless to say, a good time was had by all.

Then after the birthday party was all over I took Jenny out to the hospital that evening, and the next morning she had a major operation. She was in the hospital for eight days, and as I write this, she has been home ten days and is gradually getting her strength back, and by the time you read this she will be pretty nearly back to normal, as she is getting along very nicely. Of course, she isn't doing any lifting or reaching. Zo and Peg have been awfully good about helping with the housework and the clothes have been going to the laundry.

Jenny wants me to thank you folks again for the hundreds and hundreds of cards and letters she received, and she enjoys them a lot even though she can't acknowledge them.

There was still more excitement in the Field tribe during the past month. Little Danny Field is going around all taped up and with his shoulder in a brace. He is so active that Maxine has to chase him just constantly. John moved the screen door hooks quite high, so that Danny couldn't reach them. This way Maxine could keep him in the house when it wasn't convenient to watch him out of doors. Danny soon learned to push a chair up to the door and reach the hook and open the door. However, this one particular time he didn't have the chair placed quite right and in reaching out for the hook he lost his balance and fell quite heavily on his right shoulder. The result was a broken collar-bone. The doctor says it will have to be firmly held in place by the tape and the brace for at least six weeks. Danny is very unhappy about the whole thing.

Jenny's mother and her sister Dolly have been visiting in Shenandoah for the past week and have been having a grand visit. They have been dividing their time between our place, Zo's place and Peg's place, but rather concentrating on Peg, as Jim is down in Texas this week on a business trip.

COVER PICTURE

On this month's cover is Frank working in his vegetable garden. Gardening is a hobby of Frank's and from the looks of the picture he really knows his hobby!

KMA Farm Field Day To Feature Rain Maker, Weathermen, Rodeo Acts

An exhibition in rainmaking, talks by weathermen, movies, rodeo events, and farm exhibits makes Monday, June 9, a "Red Letter" Day for people in the KMA area. Under the supervision of farm director Merrill Langfitt a full day's program of activities will make this Farm Field Day the finest in KMA's history!

The theme of the day's activities will be "Rainmaking and its Relation to Agriculture" with the art of weather forecasting explained in detail.

The morning's program will begin in the KMA Mayfair Auditorium with a welcome by Edward May. Following the welcome, Tom Swearingen, a nationally-known weatherman and rainmaker of the Water Resources Development Corporation of Denver, Colorado, will show sound and color motion pictures: "Pipeline To The Clouds" and "Seeding the Clouds to Increase Rain". Frank Field will then give an explanation of weather forecasting.

Following this part of the program the KMA entertainers will present a show beginning at 11:30 A.M.

After the noon recess the activities move to the Shenandoah Airport at 1:30. The KMA entertainers start the afternoon program. Following will be a demonstration by Mr. Swearingen on cloud seeding with silver iodide crystals. Ed Stapowich, of Omaha, a noted weatherman of the United States Weather Bureau, will also explain the various aspects of weather in relation to agriculture.

A special entertainment feature will start at the airport at 3:45 P.M. with a riding demonstration by the Washington Rough Riders, with participants from many Iowa and Missouri communities. The crowd will see rodeo acts, stunts, and precision riding. A topnotch group of 40 riders and 70 horses will present acts that have made them famous throughout the midwest.

The hangers at the Shenandoah Airport will house commercial exhibits and a gadget display. The gadget display will be of special interest to all would be inventors. On exhibit will be home-made machinery

On the KMA PARTY LINE

With DORIS MURPHY

About the time the snow flies in December something mighty important is going to happen in the MERL DOUGLAS Family. If MERL's announcing seems unusually happy the next few months, you'll know it is because he is looking forward to the coming event . . . a new arrival in the family.

Sunday, June 1st, was the date of the marriage of DONALD SHOEMAKER, Jr., son of KMA's afternoon Homemaker ADELLA SHOEMAKER and husband, to MISS MARGIE MOODY. The wedding occurred at 4:30 p.m., at the Rustin Ave. Methodist Church in Sioux City, Iowa. A reception followed in the church parlors. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Moody of Sioux City. GEORGE SHOEMAKER, a brother of the groom was soloist at the wedding, and John Squire of Shenandoah, a student at Iowa State College, was best man. The couple are honeymooning in The Black Hills. Following his graduation from Morningside College next Christmas, DONALD will resume his study for the ministry at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago. Watch the July issue for a picture of the bridal couple.

Here's the members of KMA's Women's Bowling team proudly displaying the red rose horse shoe wreath presented them by Asst. Sta. Mgr. and Mrs. A. J. KOELKER, in honor of their winning the championship of their league, as well as City League Championship. This is the second straight year, the women's bowling team of KMA has been the winner of their league. This year they won 64 and lost 41 games. Their averages are: INEZ KEETON, 133; LOIS JEAN WARNER, 128; Captain GAYLE MAHER, 143; LORRAINE GLEASON, 132; and MARTHA JO YATES, 125. A trophy was also presented to each of the girls by Don Tebbe, bowling alley manager, for winning the title of City League Champions, comprised of 24 teams. They each received a gold cup presented by EDWARD MAY on behalf of the May Broadcasting Company. To win this honor, a total of 2,127 scratch pins were bowled. Gen. Mgr. OWEN SADDLER has declared a half-holiday for the team.

Among those enjoying the excitement and thrills of the big political convention in Chicago in early July, will be KMA's Chief Newscaster RALPH CHILDS. RALPH and son DAVID, also plan to visit RALPH's sister in Elmhurst, Ill. Other members of the CHILDS family have interesting vacation plans too! Seven year old MICHAEL has been invited to join a neighboring family, the Duane Burdicks on a trip to Estes Park as company for their little daughter Linda, and his brother STEVIE may attend a boys camp. Just so Mother and little SUSIE will have a vacation too, the family may go to the lakes for a few days later in the summer.

May 12 had a significant meaning for entertainer MICKEY COTTEY! It was his first anniversary on KMA.

After driving 900 miles . . . appearing in two afternoon stage shows . . . and playing for two evening dances . . . all within 2 days . . . six KMA entertainers were mighty tired and sleepy by the time they reached home from a personal appearance trip to Colby, Kans. Because of the floods, they were forced to drive a long way round to reach Colby, making it a distance of 450 miles each way. They left at 6:30 a.m. Friday morning, and drove all night Saturday night, reaching Shenandoah at 9:30 Sunday morning. The members of the staff making the personal appearance at the Northwest Kansas Tractor Club celebration were: WAYNE BEAVERS, Master of Ceremonies, DOC EMBREE, EZRA HAWKINS, BOB STOTTS, CURLY DALE, and COY MARTIN. ESTHER EMBREE, who had planned to make the trip, was unable to go because of the illness of their son JOHNNIE who was taken to the hospital ill with a viris infection, the night before they were to leave.

Say fellows . . . here's a tip on how to keep the wife happy! DOC EMBREE spent $30.00 on fishing tackle. As an after-thought he bought his wife ESTHER, a necklace and ear rings that cost $2.44. And to think . . . it worked!

With a third homemaker added to the Tidy House Products Co. staff, we thought you might like to see a picture of the three women whose voices you hear on KMA, 10 to 10:30 each weekday morning, KAY WILKENS, EDITH HANSEN, and the new member of the staff, JANE ROBINSON formerly of New Ulm, Minn. JANE has been in radio since 1942, having been connected with stations in Harrisonburg, Va., Fairmont, West Va., and in Minn. Prior to her entrance into radio, she edited a country newspaper and served as advertising manager of a large department store. The ROBINSONS have an eight yr. old daughter, BLISS. You will have the opportunity of meeting all three together with Homemakers ADELLA SHOEMAKER and BERNICE CURRIER on Friday, June 6th at Homemaker's Day honoring the Tenth Anniversary of EDITH HANSEN on KMA. EDITH HANSEN DAY on KMA, sponsored by Tidy House Products Co., will be held in the KMA Auditorium at 2 P.M. Several hundred dollars worth of gifts will be given away. The Carl Haden Family, formerly of KMA and now heard regularly on KMTV, will present a musical program, followed by "Penny Auction" emceed by GLENN HARRIS of KMTV. We hope you will be our guest Homemaker's Day, June 6!

KMA Installs New 5,000 Watt Transmitter

Getting ready to go into operation soon is KMA's new 5,000 watt transmitter that will provide the station with the latest broadcasting equipment available.

The equipment has now been fully installed, but will be subject to several "trial runs" before put into regular service sometime next month.

The old KMA transmitter has been in operation for nearly 17 years. It is still in excellent working condition and will be retained for use as an emergency transmitter when mechanical difficulties might arise.

ED MAY COMMENTARY TO BE BROADCAST BY ARMED FORCES RADIO

A commentary by Edward May concerning hometown news from communities in KMA-Land will be broadcast at various future dates by Armed Forces Radio, short wave radio and in veteran hospitals to keep servicemen from the area up on the happenings at home.

The recorded program made by Ed, with the assistance of KMA special events man Warren Nielson, is one in a series being released by the Army Home Town News Bureau.

The KMA program also invites servicemen to mail in requests for dedications on regular KMA musical programs.

Langfitt's "Bottle Piggies" Progressing Rapidly On Sow's Milk Supplement

The husky little porkers in the picture above with Merrill Langfitt, KMA farm service director, don't look like they are little orphans raised away from their mothers, but that's exactly what they are!

They are part of a large herd of registered Chester Whites being raised by Merrill, in partnership with Howard Phipps on Phipps' farm near Farragut, Iowa.

The little pigs were taken from their sows right after farrowing and raised on a milk supplement, and the "bottle piggies" really seem to like it.

"Best of all," explains Merrill, "It means you can have both the spring litters and the fall litters during warm weather as the sows can be bred for farrowing again right after they've had their litter, without waiting for the pigs to be weaned."

The sows are all top-grade registered Chester Whites from some of the best herds in the midwest.
