DALLAS DOINGS □ Broadcasters gather in Dallas for packed convention that finds them facing choice between two regulatory and operating paths. PAGE 43.

TISCH TALK □ CBS Chief Executive Officer Laurence Tisch chronicles where broadcasting industry has been and where it’s going in NAB convention address. PAGE 44.

NAB 87 □ Departing FCC Chairman Mark Fowler tells NAB crowd that industry needs backbone to fight for its First Amendment rights PAGE 55. Four other FCC commissioners, plus NTIA's Al Sikes, review issues pending in Fifth Estate. PAGE 56. New House Telecommunications Subcommittee Chairman Ed Markey previews policy goals. PAGE 58. Congressmen provide glimpse of upcoming debate on license renewal reform legislation. PAGE 60. Congressional and FCC staffers differ over must-carry sunset, renewal bill. PAGE 60. DeConcini announces music licensing hearing. PAGE 61. Ritter pushes for antitrust exemption for technological research. PAGE 63. FCC's McKinney reviews progress on AM duopoly, fairness doctrine. PAGE 64. FCC's Killory addresses indecency question. PAGE 64. Lawyers cover wide range of topics at ABA seminar. PAGE 65. Fritts endorses creation of NAB technology center. PAGE 68. Broadcasters continue to move switch to half-inch format. PAGE 68. High-definition television draws its share of interest at NAB. PAGE 70. Growth of satellite newsgathering vehicles continues at rapid pace. PAGE 71-72. FMX future appears bright despite slow progress in past year. PAGE 73. AM news: Motorola pushes its system. PAGE 74. Broadcasters get a listen to NRSC standard. PAGE 74. Martin Umanovsky honored with Distinguished Service Award. PAGE 76. Low-power television operators seek to increase visibility. PAGE 77. Tax law changes have affected the way broadcasters operate and sell their stations. PAGES 80-81. Network researchers review progress on people meters. PAGE 82. Condom advertising debated. PAGE 84. RAB's Stakelin urges salesmen to get on the stick. PAGE 85. Trout, McClendon and Storz inducted into Radio Hall of Fame. PAGE 86.

STARTING UP □ Fox takes to the airwaves with its first prime time lineup of programming. PAGE 88.

TOP VIEW □ NBC's Brandon Tartikoff says network study reveals VCR's are helping network. PAGE 90.

FOREIGN SHORES □ Programmers, syndicators and distributors gear up for MIP. PAGE 90.

FULL-STEAM AHEAD □ Cabletelevision Advertising Bureau convention hears bullish words on future of business. PAGE 94.

TAXING AFFAIR □ Many states, looking to replace lost revenue, are examining taxing advertising expenditures. PAGE 96.

BAKER'S DOZEN □ Group W's Bill Baker is chosen to head channel 13 WNET(TV) New York. PAGE 102.

COLOR COMPETITOR □ American Film Technologies enters colonization field. PAGE 105.

SPORTSMAN □ ABC Sports President Dennis Swanson keeps a host of balls in the air as he oversees the diversifying interests of that division. PAGE 127.