MAN ABOUT MANHATTAN

By SID WHITE

- - - ONCE OVER LIGHTLY; Dinin' Shore mixed an offer of 12 G's per to play Bill Miller's Riviera. . . . A radio station in Panama does under the call letters of HOG. . . . ABC's "Ethel and Albert" may latch onto Westinghouse as a bookkeeper. . . . Did Rob't Montgomery move out of the Wolford to avoid all those complimentary phone calls from strangers regarding his Lee Hat radio show's attack on crime? And is it true that he has given up the idea of devoting himself exclusively to eastern radio and TV? His polls tell us that the strain is already beginning to tell on him. . . . J. C. Flippens, one of our better pioneer air comics and now a "Hollywood villain," is slated for the CBS comic-treatment. . . . Ronald Colman appearing on 'B'way this fall in "The Glencoda Smile" is better than a possibility. . . . The Appellate Division of the N. Y. Supreme Court unanimously upheld Judge Steuer's decision of last year in favor of "H'wood Screen Test." Lester Lewis was sued then by "Screen Test, Inc." for a half a million on the idea. . . . Bert Wheeler coming back with a TV variety show. . . . Sign on a 'B'way dance hall: "Television shown between dance sets."

- - - Watch the Ford TV Theater this Friday nite. It's an advance in video showmanship and credit director Mark Daniels with an alert, enterprising stunt, The drama is "Subway Express" and Daniels is doing it in the Inspection Barn of the IRT Subway, up at the end of the Jerome Ave. line. A real IRT car is being used to insure authenticity. If this is a click, other Ford shows will similarly be performed "on location."

- - - A new star was born the other p.m. at the swank Copacabana, and, like Jackie Egan, we were at the Copa to witness it. Billed under the hilarious Martin & Lewis duo was little Toni Arden, daughter of Philip Ardizzone, who was once a Metropolitan Opera star and sang at world renowned La Scala, in Milan. Toni walked out to a tough audience. Tough because they had come to the Copa to be made to laugh. Well, Toni didn't make 'em laugh—but she darn near had 'em crying. That is, after they had made her come out for half a dozen encores. We learned to know that her young voice twist behind Toni's success the other nite. A few weeks ago, she got her big break by being booked into the Capitol Theater—only to be forced to cancel due to severe cold. Getting such a break as a New York theater date and then having a cold cheat you out of it is the kind of reason psychiatrists can afford such big coughs. Well, we're happy to report that Toni made her own break at the Copa opening. She wowed an audience filled with celebs, top entertainers and the town's severest critics. "You're terrific, kid!" yelled Clown Prince Milton Berle as Toni exited off the Copa floor—and that's about the way we felt about it, too.

- - - Dan Seymour, who took over the supervising chores of "We the People" in Feb., has demonstrated what the quality of showmanship will do for any stanza. Seymour, reviving what had been a dying pigeon, adrenaline the television Nielsen to almost double its previous rating and boosted the show's status from 8th to 13th at the last report.

- - - At the conclusion of Melvin Douglas' appearance on the "M-G-M Theater of the Air" over WMMG, Howard Dietz, program host, said to the guest star: "Before we sign off, it is customary to have a little interview so that the listening audience can hear you step out of character." "Actors aren't supposed to have their own character," cracked Douglas. "They merely have characters created by script writers."

R. R. LOOKS BACK—And Ahec
